B.C. Coalition Almost Eliminates CCF Party In Yesterday's Vote

ON Wednesday the people of British Columbia turned their backs definitely on the socialist policies of the C.C.F. and swept the Coalition Government back into power for the third time, giving it an increased majority in the Legislature. In the process they almost eliminated the C.C.F., cutting that party down from 11 to 6 seats. The Coalition took 40, Labor 1 and Independent 1. It was one of the most sweeping political victories this province has ever seen.

The most significant feature of the campaign was the shrinkage of the C.C.F. vote. In every riding the socialist vote was considerably lighter than in the 1945 election and those C.C.F. candidates who did win did so with greatly reduced majorities.

The C.C.F. held three seats in Vancouver, Kaslo-Slocan, Cranbrook and Grand-Forks-Greenwood.

From the first return, the trend was evident and the fate of the Government was never in doubt. The Coalition was formed under Hon. John Hart in 1945 and was returned to office in 1945 and now will control the 22nd Legislature.

C.C.F. Leader Harold Winch and his running mate, A. J. Turner, were re-elected in Vancouver East. E. E. Winch was re-elected in Burnaby, but such C.C.F. stalwarts as H. Gargrave in Mackenzie, and Sam Guthrie, in Cowichan-Newcastle, were lost in the landslide.

The C.C.F. lost Peace River, Rossland-Trail, Prince Rupert, Cowichan-Newcastle, Fort George, Omineca and Mackenzie. They gained seats in Cranbrook and Grand-Forks-Greenwood. In the latter place an independent candidate stole enough votes to defeat the Coalition's Tom Love.

In Alberni the sitting member, the first Indian candidate in a run as an independent, was B.C. election, Calder in Atlin, re-elected. He was formerly a Coalitionist.

Tom Uphill, Labor, retained his Fernie seat, but only by a few votes over the Coalition candidate.

The Interior was solidly Coalition with the exception of Slocan and Grand-Forks-Greenwood. Throughout the Okanagan the CCF vote was considerably reduced.

Conservatives Happy
All cabinet ministers were re-elected.

Editorial

"A Famous Victory"

As old Caspar said: "It was a famous victory" and it is unlikely the results of yesterday's election were a surprise to anyone; indeed, any other result would have been a surprise to everyone. After all, the Coalition Administration had given this province good government for eight years and the average voter saw little reason to change a good government for one that was uncertain in theory and in practice.

Then, too, the C.C.F. gave every encouragement for the thinking that, whether they desired it or not, the Communist element was actually in control of the C.C.F. party in this province. The "Atlantic Pact episode" and the slugging of the "Red Flag" at a C.C.F. meeting in Vancouver, the driving moments of the campaign, could do little else than convince the average voter that the C.C.F. encouraged pro-Communist sympathies.

It is doubtful if the C.C.F. leaders themselves expected any other result than that which occurred. After all, they had waged an effective campaign as they could but they were fully aware that they had little to fight with. They could find no spot to successfully attack the government, and, indeed, throughout most of the campaign were themselves on the defensive.

Locally, the election was a triumph for W. A. C. Bennett, who commenced his campaign with one strike against him, his failure to win the federal seat in the by-election last June. However, his record in the Legislature during his two previous terms stood him in good stead and the voters recognized that in him they could vote for an able administrator who would fight for what he believed to be right and who would be an excellent representative of this district. As was said in these columns before the election, the South Okanagan voters had two good candidates from which to choose. Many who cast votes against Mr. Wilkinson will sincerely regret that he had to be defeated. Both candidates fought good, clean campaigns in as active a political potpourri as has been seen in this constituency in many years. Credit to them both.

Mr. Bennett was given the largest majority ever given a candidate in South Okanagan. That majority was in part a personal triumph, a tribute to Mr. Bennett's recognized abilities. However it also reflects the effect of good co-operation between the anti-socialist parties. To these two things can be added two other things: the effects of the first well-organized campaign a political party has had in this riding in years; and a definite swing away from the socialist thinking of the C.C.F.

The interest in the election locally is indicated by the size of the vote which created a new South Okanagan record both numerically and percentage-wise. The list was the largest in the riding's history and the vote cast was the largest but it was not expected that this could surpass the seventy-one per cent which voted in the by-election last fall. That more than three-quarters of the voters actually exercised their franchise in a holiday period speaks well for the party organizations and but emphasizes the keenness of the fight.

The provincial election results of yesterday and the vote throughout the Okanagan where the C.C.F. definitely lost much ground must play its part in the results of the forthcoming federal election on the 27th. In those results the C.C.F. will find little encouragement and much to discourage them. In South Okanagan in only three polls did the C.C.F. obtain a majority and even in these their majority was less than half that obtained in these same polls just last November. The story was the same in North Okanagan and Similkameen. The figures must cause the C.C.F. federal forces concern and give additional confidence to the Progressive Conservative forces in Yale, and, indeed, throughout the province. The defeat of such C.C.F. strongmen as Gargrave, Guthrie, McNeil and Cameron must give the party cause for concern in the federal field as it shows the socialist support is on the ebb in this province. The results of yesterday's voting in B.C. will be felt throughout Canada on the 27th.

The one regrettable feature is the wiping out of any effective opposition in the Legislature. A strong opposition generally means better government and with such a weak opposition Messrs. Johnson and Anscomb must take extra precautions to ensure that their overwhelming majority does not tend to make them and their cohorts careless in the administration of their duties.

The provincial election, at least is now over and the die is cast for another four years. The Coalition Government can now go back to its task of giving good government to this province while we voters in South Okanagan can forget the differences in political opinions which have overshadowed our relationships during the past few weeks and resume our friendships and get back to work making Kelowna and the surrounding district an even better place in which to live.

Election Highlights

A tense crowd, ranging from little children to old men, packed the hot, smoky C. P. campaign headquarters last night, waiting anxiously for the first returns of the provincial elections.

By 8:15, the first set of returns had been announced giving Tom Wilkinson, a lead of fourteen votes in the East Kelowna district. Shouts of joy broke the rising hum of excitement and undercurrents of nervous tension were apparent.

Fifteen minutes later, however, the picture changed with the announcement that W. A. C. Bennett, Coalition candidate, was leading two other polls. From then on faces became gloomier and groans were uttered as the C.C.F. party rapidly lost their first gains in district after district.

At 8:30 mutterings of "the people are crazy" were heard throughout the still crowded room. O. L. Jones, C.C.F. candidate in the forthcoming federal election, stolidly chewed on his cigar. Mr. Wilkinson was not present.

The still tense crowd began to thin out by 8:40 and many were heard to say as they left, "too many stooges for the Coalition." Majority awaited the appearance of Mr. Wilkinson. He drove up at 8:50 only to turn round by the time he reached the door and drive off to the Coalition headquarters to concede the election. Returning to the C.C.F. campaign room, Mr. Wilkinson said, "I would like to thank all for what you have done. We may have lost a battle, but we have not lost the war. Under the present economic system our problems cannot be solved and in the end we will be proved right. We will do much better next time."

On his way out, an ardent supporter of the C.C.F. party announced to those present that "The South

Okanagan electors are gluttons for punishment."

Jack Snowsall, campaign manager, reminded the people before they left that a federal election was coming up on the 27th and that there was a lot of work to be done to re-elect Mr. Jones with as big a majority as he had last time.

Mr. Jones replied by urging the people to persuade the Liberals that "Mr. Drew is a danger to Canada."

Only nine supporters were around in the Coalition committee rooms at Orange Hall when first returns came in at 8:15. Little surprise was registered at learning first, East Kelowna, and then Ellison, had been retained by the C.C.F. Observers were heard to exclaim, "It's a cinch now! As Glenmore goes, so goes the whole bunch!"

Naramata's results, received at Coalition headquarters at 8:30, wiped out the brief and only C.C.F. lead on the "score board." Next came Coalition victories in Peachland and Glenmore.

Ardent Coalition workers were jubilant as each poll now showed an increased majority over the figures in the 1948 by-election. One man exclaimed: "It's a cinch now! As Glenmore goes, so goes the whole bunch!"

"It's all over! It's all over!" chanted the Coalitionists in unison as the Kelowna city results were chalked on the board. "Look!" exclaimed one man excitedly, grabbing a friend by the arm. "The majority is more than 600 over last years."

Mr. Bennett strolled into the room a moment after the Kelowna results were chalked on the board.

Scores Major Victory

PREMIER BYRON JOHNSON

Whose government scored a landslide victory in yesterday's provincial election. Premier Johnson was the first Coalition candidate to be elected last night, winning handsomely in New Westminster. Coalition elected 40 members; C.C.F. 6; Labor 1, and independent 1. In the last house the C.C.F. had 11 members.

W. A. C. Bennett Scores Major Victory As Record Vote Cast in Election

W. A. C. BENNETT

Who polled 58 per cent of the total vote cast in South Okanagan constituency yesterday. Wednesday's voting was the heaviest in the history of the riding.

CELEBRATING

"GIVE ME MY BOOTS (HORSE) AND SADDLE"

The days of horse-stealing appear far from gone even at this advanced horsemanship stage.

Andrew Jack, Indian on the Westbank Reserve, Tuesday complained to police his horse, complete with saddle and bridle, was stolen Monday night.

Police are investigating.

KELOWNA FACES NO AMBULANCE SERVICE AGAIN

The City of Kelowna may be without an ambulance service again within the near future.

S. A. Bredin notified City Council Monday night that due to sickness in the family, he is unable to continue to operate the service.

Mr. Bredin took the taxi service over several months ago. The matter was referred to Alderman W. T. L. Roadhouse for investigation.

G. F. ELLIOTT SCHOOL HEAD PASSES AWAY

Well-known Resident of Winfield District Dies in 47th Year

George Fraser Elliott, well-known teacher at the Winfield School and principal for a quarter of a century, died in Kelowna General Hospital on Wednesday, June 15, in his 47th year.

Rev. R. C. S. Crysdale, United Church, Rutland, will officiate at the funeral service on Saturday, June 18, at 2:30 p.m., from the chapel of Day's Funeral Service. Interment will be in Kelowna cemetery.

A native of Paisley, Ont., Mr. Elliott attended Normal School in Vancouver, embarking on his lengthy teaching career at a quarter of a century, died in Kelowna General Hospital on Wednesday, June 15, in his 47th year.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, in Winfield; two sons, Douglas in Vancouver and Alan in Bannockburn; two brothers in Vancouver, two brothers in Calgary; one brother in California; one sister in Calgary and one sister in Tennessee.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday at the Day's Funeral Home, 1111 W. 1st St., Kelowna.

Mrs. Elliott is the Winfield correspondent for The Kelowna Courier.

Former M.L.A. Wins by 1,823 Majority

SMOKE of the provincial election battle has cleared, and W. A. C. Bennett will once again represent South Okanagan constituency in the B.C. Legislature during the next term of office.

The 48-year-old former M.L.A. scored a decisive victory over Tom Wilkinson, C.C.F. standard-bearer, in yesterday's provincial election which saw a record number of voters go to the polls. Mr. Bennett polled a total of 6,418 votes compared with 4,595 for Mr. Wilkinson, winning by a majority of 1,823. These figures, while unofficial, were released this morning by Harvey Wilson, returning officer for South Okanagan. Official count will be made in two weeks' time.

Mr. Wilkinson conceded the election at 9:12 p.m., shortly after the Kelowna vote had been counted. After the first three rural polls had been heard from, there was a definite indication that the vote was swinging away from the C.C.F. and Mr. Bennett's majority started moving upward as the remainder of the votes were received at campaign headquarters.

Mr. Bennett polled the largest majority in the history of South Okanagan constituency. The morning he had nothing but praise for the close co-operation he had received from both Liberals and Conservatives and stated the close team-work exemplified the true meaning of Coalition.

The election result indicated there is a definite swing from the C.C.F. In the 1948 provincial by-election, Bruce Woodsworth, C.C.F. standard bearer, polled around 46 per cent of the vote, whereas in yesterday's election, Mr. Wilkinson only polled 42 per cent of the vote.

In the 1948 provincial by-election, Bob Browne-Clayton Coalition candidate, got around 53 per cent of the vote, but Mr. Bennett, in yesterday's voting, increased this to 58 per cent.

Out of a total of 14,432 people on the voters' list in South Okanagan, 11,068 exercised their franchise. In the City of Kelowna, 4,959 people cast ballots out of a total of 6,512. This also was one of the largest votes ever polled in the city.

Campaign officials had high lives in Bannockburn, a pro-CCF vote was anticipated in these districts.

STIFF JAIL TERMS GIVEN TWO LABORERS

Stiff jail terms with hard labor were handed out in district police court Monday when two laborers appeared for sentence on charges of breaking and entering a dwelling by night at June Springs, 10 miles southeast of here.

Stipendiary Magistrate G. A. McKay sentenced Charles Bubb to two years in the penitentiary and Roger Hinton to three months in Gaol. Both men elected summary trial and pleaded guilty before Magistrate McKay on June 8.

A gasoline iron and hot plate and articles of bedding, taken from the June Springs dwelling, were recovered.

JAYCEES TAKE ACTIVE PART IN ELECTION

Junior Chamber of Commerce, as in past years, took an active part in getting out the vote in Wednesday's provincial election.

Art Clarke appeared before city council Monday night to finalize plans for the drive. City fathers granted Jaycees permission to use a sound truck throughout the city, reminding citizens to exercise their franchise, while a permit was also issued to install a booth on Bernard Avenue for the voters to leave voting stubs which appeared around necks of milk bottles.

Jaycees also plan a similar drive on the day of the dominion election, June 27.

New Drugs May Control All Infectious Diseases Kelowna Gyros Informed

It is quite possible that the development of new drugs may make possible a complete control of all infectious diseases, Prof. E. L. Woods, B.Sc.P. (Sask.), M.Sc.P., dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy, University of British Columbia, told the Kelowna Gyro Club on Tuesday night. He warned, however, that it might be "some time yet" before such complete control is achieved.

Dean Woods made the remark during a talk on the recent developments in the drug field. He said that in the control of bacterial diseases, the discovery of the sulphadiazine drugs in 1935 had been most significant as it had opened up an entirely new field for research.

The sulphadiazine drug was followed quickly by penicillin and others, and the end is by no means yet. These drugs provided a means of combating the bacterial diseases when hope of finding a successful counteragent had been just about abandoned.

While this field has been the most spectacular, important developments had been made in other fields of pharmacy, notably in the pain-killers and the use of hormones. Several new drugs to relieve pain had been discovered, while the fight against allergies such as hayfever had entirely changed in the past three years through the use of hormones. In this latter groups in three years twenty-five new successful drugs had been discovered.

A revolution has taken place during the past fifty years, when the development of drugs had exceeded by far the development in the previous thousand years.

Dean Woods was introduced by D. Whitman, while J. MacLellan expressed the club's thanks.

The Fruit Industry and The C.C.F.

C.C.F. speakers and workers are now claiming that the present marketing setup in the B.C. fruit industry is "socialistic" and, as it has been a success, fruit growers in the Okanagan should go further in their support of socialism. The catch, however, is that the fruit industry setup is in no way "socialistic"—certainly not in the manner in which the C.C.F. interpret the word.

The C.C.F. can claim no credit for the B.C. fruit industry marketing setup. It was a Liberal government at Victoria which first provided machinery under which the machine could function. The Coalition government has renewed and oiled that machinery. At Ottawa the first marketing act was passed under a Conservative government and it was a Liberal government which provided powers under which the local fruit industry functioned for many years and which now has provided a marketing act. The C.C.F. at no time has even entered the picture, except to give support to the Liberal Government measure in the House.

The individual fruit growers are similar to shareholders of a limited company. They have voluntarily signed contracts which place them in this position. They, in effect, elect the directors of both B.C. Tree Fruits Limited and B.C. Fruit Processors Limited, their two operating companies. Moreover, those same grower-shareholders elect from among themselves the members of the B.C. Fruit Board, in which rests many of the regulatory powers.

If this is socialism, it is a vastly different type from that which is practised in Saskatchewan and other places which have been unfortunate enough to elect a socialist government. C.C.F. speakers talk fluently of the value of co-operatives and of their success. And yet in no single instance, as far as we are aware, has a socialist government ever encouraged or set up a co-operative. Actually a co-operative could not exist in a truly socialist state.

What did the C.C.F. do in Saskatchewan? They set up a GOVERNMENT BOARD to control the lumber industry. They set up a GOVERNMENT BOARD to control the fish industry. They set up a GOVERNMENT BOARD to control the fur industry. These were appointed boards by the government and in no case did the lumbermen, the fishermen and the furmen have any control of the board. These boards operated so successfully that they just about drove the lumber, fishing and fur business right out of Northern Saskatchewan.

There is a vast difference between the C.C.F. government-board policy in Saskatchewan and the method under which the B.C. fruit industry is operated today. In Saskatchewan the producer has little or no voice in the matter. He is regulated and controlled to the exasperation point but he has no recourse but to grin and bear it. He is Sinbad the Sailor with the Old Man of the Sea firmly sitting on his neck. In the fruit industry in the Okanagan, the situation is quite different. The producers regulate themselves. It is they who say this or that shall be done in this or that manner. They can kick over the present setup tomorrow, should they so desire. It is the democratic free enterprise system operating in the fruit industry here and it has no resemblance to the socialist planning which has been in vogue in Saskatchewan.

When C.C.F. speakers claim that the B.C. fruit industry is a "socialistic" setup, they are guilty of misrepresentation. Certainly it is far removed from the marketing control measures adopted in Saskatchewan to which they like to point. Here the grower is the power; in Saskatchewan the producer is but a cipher obeying the dictates of a government-appointed board.

Mr. Wilson vs. The C.C.F.

The recent statements of Mr. Harold Wilson, president of the British Board of Trade, are highly encouraging to those in Canada who believe in maximum multilateral trade, conducted by private traders and not by the state. They are equally discouraging to the C.C.F., which proposes in Canada a trade policy now being rejected, according to Mr. Wilson, by the British socialist government.

Repeatedly in Canada Mr. Wilson stated that the present British system of bilateral trade deals, conducted by the state, was not the permanent policy of his government, but an emergency measure only, to be relaxed as rapidly as possible. In Vancouver Mr. Wilson said: "His Majesty's Government doesn't regard the bilateral method of trading as a permanent instrument of policy." He added that "more recently our bilateral arrangements with European countries have been liberalized and made freer; less and less are we undertaking to supply scarce goods; more and more trade is reverting to ordinary commercial channels."

From this it would appear that the British Government, as was inevitable, has found that bilateral barter arrangements, which warp trade within unnatural channels and restrict its total volume, are quite inadequate to serve the needs of Britain. As the recent decline in British trade indicates, only the re-creation of a multilateral trading world, with the movement of goods at its maximum, will put Britain on its feet.

This, of course, is denial of the theory of socialism, at least as socialism is preached by the socialist party in Canada and its candidate in Yale. Whether Britain, having tried socialism, is retreating from it in many directions, as it seems to be doing, is a question which the future—and the British electorate—will decide. But it is clear already that the British Government, by Mr. Wilson's statements, repudiates the central trading theories of the C.C.F.

This is not surprising. As a minor party of protest the C.C.F. can afford academic and impractical theories which it does not have to put into action. As the Government of Britain a socialist party faces the hard facts of life and must adjust its theories to the actual needs of the state. And the British Government has found that in practice the bilateralism of the C.C.F. theory does not work.

The C.C.F. proposes to place all foreign trade under the direct control of the government, which would decide what goods, in what volume, would be exported and imported. It would also decide where goods would be exported to and imported from, and conduct this trade by long-term bulk deals at fixed prices. This means bilateral trade between Canada and the countries with which the Canadian Government could negotiate deals.

Under such an iron-clad system multilateral trade in any real sense would be impossible; for having directed our exports and imports in fixed directions and in fixed quantities, the Government could not permit any free movement of goods between a wide series of countries, according to the demands of the market, lest such movements destroy the over-all plan, as they would. Only private traders, not committed to export or import in fixed quantities and prices, but exporting and importing as the market demands, can possibly make multilateral trade work. The free private market is the only mechanism, through which multilateralism, and hence maximum trade, can work. The free market is the enemy of socialism, and the Canadian socialists never tire of attacking it as an evil in itself.

If all this is true in principle, it is now declared by Mr. Wilson to be true in practice. When he says the British trade is more and more reverting to "ordinary commercial channels," at the wish of the government, he is saying that the government is deliberately encouraging the private trader and discouraging government trade. When he defends the present bilateral government trade deals as a temporary expedient to be dissolved as soon as possible, he is in fact attacking the whole trade policy of the C.C.F. Mr. Wilson thus appears as a rather surprising but highly convincing witness in favor of the free private market and against a system which the C.C.F. proposes to enforce in Canada—a witness who speaks from hard and bitter experience.

Whether socialist planning in the domestic economy of Britain can be successfully divorced from private management of foreign trade remains to be seen. But the C.C.F. now has the assurance of Mr. Wilson that the British Government is trying to climb out of the control of foreign trade.

When the C.C.F. promises to imitate here the socialist society of Britain that prospect, in general, is hardly attractive to Canadians, considering Britain's present condition. When the C.C.F. promises to imitate the British system of government-controlled foreign trade and finds the British Government rejecting this system, after a disappointing trial, then the C.C.F. is left in isolation. It is proposing a trade system which has been rejected wherever it has been tried—in Russia and Germany for instance—and which has failed in Britain, though the C.C.F. has always called Britain the great exemplar of socialism.

EAST KELOWNA W.I. CELEBRATE 25TH BIRTHDAY

Social Evening Is Being Planned by Members in Community Hall June 18

EAST KELOWNA—The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall on Wednesday of last week. The vice-president was in the chair and sixteen members were present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and the treasurer presented a very satisfactory report.

The East Kelowna Women's Institute will celebrate its twenty fifth birthday on Saturday, June 18, with a social evening in the Community Hall. Invitations have been extended to past presidents and members together with their husbands. The members intend to make this evening a happy get-together, renewing old acquaintances. A cheque was sent to the Women's Auxiliary of the Kelowna hospital. Afternoon tea was served, the hostesses being Mrs. H. Harwell, Mrs. A. Harville and Mrs. H. Hewlett.

This is the last meeting of the Institute until the fall session.

Fire during the early morning hours this morning robbed Kelowna of its power house, the entire building being destroyed. A back draft, forcing the flames through the doors of the furnace in the boiler room and setting fire to a large pile of sawdust caused the blaze. No attempt was made to use the hydrants and, as might have been expected, that piece of machinery miserably failed. A fire engine failed in the crucial moment and was of no use to the fire fighters. Value of the destroyed building was $10,000 with $8,000 insurance.

After a long dry spell, the district was visited by heavy rains on Tuesday, culminating in the evening with a thunder storm and a torrential downpour of rain such as has not been seen here for years.

A plank that gave way in the sluice-gate of the Central Okanagan and Orchard Company's dam on Mill Creek caused a sudden rise of two feet in the creek level on Monday and some alarm was felt that the dam had been broken.

TEN YEARS AGO

Dave McNair, Vernon, sales manager of Associated Growers, on Wednesday was appointed sales manager of B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd., single selling agency which this year handle the entire domestic sale of the Okanagan, mainline and Kootenay fruit crops.

Today Kelowna goes upon the air map of the world when the plane of the Yukon Southern Air Transport puts down in the Rutland field to mark the arrival of the first regular scheduled passenger flight into this city. The line now is running three times a week into Oliver from Vancouver and it is the intention to run a sub line from Oliver to Kelowna and Vernon, connecting with the Vancouver ship at Oliver. The stub line and the use of a smaller ship than the one used on the Vancouver-Oliver run is necessitated by the inadequacy of the Kelowna and Vernon strips.

Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson, at the Assize Court in Vernon, issued a restraining injunction against William and Annie Nychuk, ordering them to remove their building on Bernard Avenue, Kelowna, within 30 days.

William McDougall, Westbank was acquitted by an Assize Court jury in Vernon on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death last February of Maria Alexander, young Westbank Indian woman.

Following receipt in person of a complaint from members of the Kelowna growers, the Kelowna Board of Trade has formed a committee to confer with the city on proper parking accommodation for horses. One of the delegates to the Kelowna board pointed out that there had been three changes in the horse parking lot during the past few years and that each one had been worse than the one before.

Modern Foods Ltd., the company formed for the purpose of carrying out the processing of apples and manufacture of cider vinegar in Kelowna, has been liquidated, with creditors getting 45 cents on the dollar.

J. R. J. Stirling, Kelowna, was elected president of the B.C. Fish and Game Association, during the annual convention in Kelowna, attended by sportsmen from nearly every section of the province.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, June 15, 1929

City council has agreed that it does not wish the police enquiry continued further and has written to Commissioner Crease to that effect.

Resignation of former Chief of Police Thomas has been accepted by the police commission and Constable Murdoch has been made acting chief.

Okanagan Telephone Co. crew has completed the placing in position of a new telephone cable from Kelowna city park to the west shore of Okanagan Lake, replacing the cable which had been in service since 1912.

At the annual meeting of Associated Growers, the gross sales of fruit and vegetables during 1928 totalled $3,871,542.64. E. J. Chambers again was chosen president and general manager with D. M. Ratay, Salmon Arm, as vice-president and secretary to the board, and O. W. Hembling, Oryama, as executive member.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, June 13, 1919

Tax rate of 36 mills has been set by city council, estimated to raise $60,912. This is an increase from 24 mills in 1914, when the assessment was $2,729,225. This year the assessment value is $1,631,490.

City council has been served with a notice of appeal on assessment which will be taken to County Court before Judge Swanson by Charles McCarthy on his eight acres at the corner of Richter and Bernard. The city's assessment is $16,000 for the lots and $7,200 improvements. Mr. McCarthy claims the land is worth not more than $4,000. This is the first time an appeal against assessment has ever been taken to court.

An expenditure of $4,000 in the Kelowna district by the Okanagan Telephone Co. is announced. Glenmore, Rutland, Ellison and Ben-voulin will see new wires running through their district.

A labor bureau under the provincial government has been started in Vernon with J. C. Childs in charge. He is working in connection with the Soldiers' Re-establishment Board.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, June 13, 1909

A fine, silver-tip bear last week about eight miles back of their ranch on Mission range.

One of the fiercest winds ever known on Okanagan Lake occurred between 6:30 and 8 p.m. Friday. Several boats broke from their moorings and were damaged.

Motor cars soon will be as common as buggies around Kelowna. Dr. Huycke has acquired F. Billings' McLaughlin-Buick 18-20 four cylinder runabout. It is a speedy and powerful car, a splendid hill-climber and very noiseless, and with more cars of such type there would be less complaint of scared horses. W. Scott brought his handsome new automobile stage down from Vernon on Monday. It is also a McLaughlin-Buick 40 h.p. with large body for conveying passengers and mails. The trip was made in one hour and 45 minutes, including the stop of several minutes at Oryama. The motor car has come into the valley to stay and the farmers will have to accept the situation.

A municipal meeting in the Opera House on June 9 decided in favor of the city borrowing $3,000 to provide for reconstruction of the power destroyed by fire on June 3. Insurance on the building and machinery, amounting to $8,000, was paid in full by the insurance companies.

A tender of $7,500, submitted by the Canadian Fairbanks Co. for the installation of a new lighting plant was accepted by the council.

PIPE TYPES

This one is dedicated to the pink-checked young man who sat ahead of me at a baseball game last week and sucked away on a long stem-formation re-markably similar in tone and facial con-tor-tions to that of a bassoon player.

For an obvious beginner he handled the pipe with a jaunty air of in-souciance. Allowed it to droop attractively from one corner of his mouth. Held it in the cupped palm of his hand with a thoughtful air that was only a tiny bit affected.

Blew a screen of heavy-scented vapors that would do credit to a veteran.

It just reminds me that there are several types of pipe smokers who have the faculty of curling the end of the pipe into a little milk of human kindness in we non-pipe-smokers.

The College of Meditating Young Man pipe-smoker heads my list of obnoxious types. Here we have a character who used the pipe as a kind of badge of distinction.

In my city editor days it was one of my tasks to hire a university man to act as campus correspondent for the newspaper. This is where I first encountered the youthful pipe smoker, a fellow who carried two volumes of Schopenhauer under one arm, batted his eyes nervously and whose stories always seemed to be little masterpieces of beautiful prose, but unfortunately unintelligible.

And always they smoked large pipes, or, at least, they smoked them when anybody was around. These fellows used to say "Yah!" when spoken to. I don't know what this proves, but somehow it is part of the story.

A similar type is the Rising Young Businessman who seems equally lost without his pipe. I know several of these birds who, in an effort to seem mature and wise beyond their years, never reply to a direct question without first peering quizzically into the bowl of their pipe or shining the grain on the sides of their nostrils, a gesture which, for no good reason, comes near driving me out of my mind.

These young men also use the pipe (usually a Kirsten, if you're interested) to point out things. In conversation a fellow has got to be mighty nimble to avoid getting a nasty wound from the weapon. He is lucky to escape with nothing more serious than a few careless embers spilled in his lap.

Even with old-time pipe smokers such irritating habits seem inevitable. At almost the very next desk to mine, for instance, sits one of these human locomotives who, when absorbed in thought, taps the pipe stem repeatedly against his lower teeth. I try desperately to ignore this but it can't be done. I have to run away to the men's washroom and stare at myself in the mirror for a long time before I regain my calm.

Apart from the undeniable fact that a pipe gives a man an air of intellectual severity, I can never understand how a man gets a life-long attachment to an old corroded root.

As an occasional eye-witness at the cleaning and fumigating process pipes require, the only advantage I can see is that it might be just the incentive needed to give up smoking completely.

Indeed, I spend many miserable hours surveying my friend at the next desk. He is constantly mixing various brands of tobacco which he puts in a pouch with a piece of apple, taking the whole mechanism apart and prodding it with cleaners which go in crisply white and come out dripping black, cutting chunks of evil smelling charcoal out of the bowl and finally testing it with juicy gurgles that cause me to race for the nearest exit.

Even when the pipe is actually assembled the tobacco must be constantly pushed down with the thumb (known as "tapping the dot") and very popular with old smokers and other raconteurs) and requires the application of hundreds of matches, all of them borrowed from cigarette smokers.

Actually, the cleaning seems to be the last resort. It is the obvious aim of all pipe smokers to get the brier as ripe as possible. It is not properly "broken in" until it gives off an aroma that is unbearable within a hundred yards. It is this condition in pipes which causes well-meaning housewives to boil their husbands' briers in soapy water, an anecdote any pipe smoker will tell at the drop of an old piece of apple.

Of interest to babies is a two-foot tropical plant grown in the West Indies and other warm countries. It is sometimes called the "era" plant. Its roots form the basic ingredient for pacifying, nutritional arrowroot biscuit.

IT TAKES MORE THAN FARMING TO MAKE A FARM SUCCESSFUL

As a farmer, you may have seen one man steadily improve his farm while a neighbor, though starting in much the same circumstances can never afford it. In many cases, the difference lies more in financing than farming.

Many successful farmers follow one simple rule to finance improvements. They know that keeping too much cash around leads to easy spending. So, as soon as they receive payment for produce, they set part of it aside in a special savings account at the Bank of Montreal. Then they just "forget" they have this money until they need it to finance bigger and better crops, more livestock, or labor-saving equipment. You, too, can boost your profits by saving regularly at the B of M. Walter Hotson, branch manager at Kelowna, invites you to drop in now and open your special account for farm-progress financing. While you are in, ask for a copy of our Farm Account Book. It will help you in your finances.

HERE'S GOOD NEWS YOU'LL SURELY APPRECIATE

WITHOUT A PENNY OF COST TO YOU we will gladly inspect your roof and report honestly as to its condition.

If your roof is found to be weathertight you will be told how to prolong its life.

Should work be required you will be given a free estimate of cost for highest quality materials and guaranteed workmanship gained from years of experience.

Remember your building is as good as its roof—don't allow it to be a victim of "slow combustion" or "dry rot" as it is sometimes called.

Do as the home experts advise, have your roof inspected periodically.

Pioneers In Federation of Agriculture Movement To Attend Coast Meeting

Officials closely connected with the agricultural industry in the interior of British Columbia, will be on hand to welcome eighty members of the International Federation of Agriculture who arrive in Vancouver on Monday, June 20. Representing 25 countries, the party will be entertained by the B.C. government and by the British Columbia Federation of Agriculture.

J. R. Stirling, president of the B.C. Federation of Agriculture, will preside over the noon luncheon tendered the day the delegates arrive. In the afternoon, they will visit the farm of A. D. Paterson in the Delta district, and in the evening, will attend a banquet in the Georgia hotel, tendered by the B.C. government.

The following morning, the visitors will be taken on a tour through Stanley Park and the British estates, winding up at the University of British Columbia where they will be luncheon guests of the Agricultural Institute of Canada which is holding its national convention at the educational centre.

Will Visit U.S.

Following the luncheon, the American delegates and a squad of farm leaders from Washington, take over the I.F.A.P. visitors, and by car and bus, conduct them on a whirlwind trip through rural Washington with Seattle as the evening objective. The visitors swing south to Los Angeles, then east via Amarillo, Oklahoma, Des Moines, Iowa, Chicago, Washington, D.C. to New York.

Hon. Frank Putnam, provincial minister of agriculture, will welcome the delegates at the B.C.F.A. luncheon, and the reply will be made by Sir James Turner, I.F.A.P. president. Premier Byron Johnson will be the main speaker at the evening banquet.

President H. H. Hannam, of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, will introduce the members of the I.F.A.P. party.

The visitors will be the guests of the Delta Farmers' Institute, Monday afternoon, an invitation extended through Secretary N. D. Napier, Lander, having been accepted by the B.C.F.A., who are the general hosts for the visit.

Federation Pioneers

A brief ten minute ceremony at Mr. Paterson's farm is planned on the party's arrival with the reeve and Murray Davis and Art Swenson, who has organized the Delta tour participating.

A tour of the Delta district will follow and the guests will re-assemble at Mr. Paterson's farm for tea at 4:30 and will return to Vancouver via New Westminster.

Preceding the banquet there will be a get together half hour in the mezzanine lounge of the Georgia, starting at 7:00 o'clock.

President Stirling and directors

Charles Walls, of Courtenay, and Harry J. Dose, Jr., Surrey Centre will go to Banff to meet the IFAP party Saturday morning June 18. They will allocate the visitors to the Vancouver hotels to which they have been assigned, look after their luggage and otherwise make things easy for them.

Pioneers in the B.C. Federation of Agriculture movement including E. D. Barrow, Wm. Harrison, W. E. Haslins, George W. Challenger and C. A. Hayden who attended the first organization meeting in the Plaza hotel, Kamloops, in 1934, have been invited to attend the government banquet along with past president E. J. Chambers, Hon. vice-presidents H. C. Oldfield, Royal Oak, and W. J. Park, Pitt Meadows, and Alex. Rankin of Dewdney, one of the signers of the charter of the B.C. Federation taken out in 1935.

Alex H. Mercer, vice-president of the B.C.F.A., is the general host from British Columbia to the IFAP sessions in Guelph, Ontario.

MAJORITY LOCAL MEN HIRED FOR THEATRE WORK

Under the guidance and leadership of experienced foremen representing the subsidiary companies under general contractors, Smith Bros. and Wilson Limited, local workmen handle the majority of construction work in the building of Kelowna's new Paramount Theatre.

Ray Taylor, representing Smith Bros. and Wilson Company Limited, was general supervisor of the construction of the theatre itself while T. Green acted as general job foreman. Anywhere from fifty down to one local laborers, most of them union men, took care of the general construction details.

However, various subsidiary companies installed seats, painted inside and out, laid tile, fitted mirrors and windows, and handled the electrical work. Jack Mitchell of Vancouver, with a local crew of six men, installed the 841 theatre seats in less than five days, a feat close to record.

Mr. Reynolds also of Vancouver, accompanied by C. Johanson, cajoled a crew of four local painters into tinting the walls both in-

ORATORICAL JUDGES HAVE TOUGH TIME

Herb Capozzi Finishes Close Second in Provincial Oratorical Contest

Three judges required three-quarters of an hour at Prince Rupert recently to pick the winner in the provincial finals of the national oratorical contest, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The judges finally picked Ernie Crampton, South Burnaby, as the champion. Though there was no official standing of the other four district winners competing in the final, Harold (Herb) Capozzi of Kelowna, was understood to have finished a close second.

It was Mr. Capozzi's fine effort that caused the judges the headache of deciding between him and Mr. Crampton. Malcolm Chapin, national director of the Jaycees reported.

Mr. Crampton advanced into the inter-regional finals with a trip to the national finals in Toronto promised him to win, lose or draw. Mr. Chapin left Sunday for Toronto for the national convention, June 16-18, during which time the oratorical final will be held.

COMMEND POLICE FOR ACTION IN ARRESTING MAN

A Supreme Court jury, at Vernon acquitted Thomas Murphy, Vernon taxi driver, on a charge of accessory after the fact.

The charge was laid following robbery of a men's wear store in Armstrong on January 7. Ernest Sequin and Edouard Grimard were convicted of the theft.

Sequin's arrest by an observant Provincial Police constable in Kelowna led to the solving of the case. Murphy was accused by the crown of driving the two men from Armstrong to Vernon with full knowledge that a robbery had taken place and later warned them side and out. This job, he estimated, took approximately three weeks.

George Firth assisted by job foreman, Henry Tellefson, employed anywhere from two to a dozen men to install the electrical wiring. He claimed that this job is one of the first to start and the last to finish.

Pouring cement and laying the quarry tile in the main entrance, "crush hall" and washrooms, fell to the lot of Jim McLaren and his two assistants, while Bob Caruthers took charge of all glass and mirror fixtures. Doors, show cases, windows, vitrolite facing, and mirrors came under his jurisdiction. The glass throughout is firmly bound by Kawneer metal.

that the police were after them. Following the discharge of the prisoner, Mr. Justice Norman W. Whittaker commended the police in Kelowna, Vernon and Armstrong in apprehending offenders and laying the groundwork for their trials.

Commends Police

Of the Murphy case he said: "Regardless of the verdict, there has been very excellent police work, and that applies to the police not only in Armstrong but in Vernon and Kelowna. I desire to say very sincerely that I have been impressed throughout the entire Assizes with the quality of the police work."

"The police witnesses have given their evidence fairly, and they have been alert in the detection of crime and the apprehension of offenders. Just as an illustration, I might point out that I have not had to reject one statement made by any accused to the police on the ground that it was improper or untrue, or was not given entirely voluntarily."

"I think it only right that some public acknowledgement should be made of the excellent service which the police are performing in this area."

The wearing of pendants as jewelry is derived from the primitive practice of wearing wild-animal teeth, stones, or shells around the neck with magical intent.

It was once believed that living human beings placed in cornerstones would ensure the stability of a building.

Crunchy toasted Kellogg's All-Bran muffins laced with cheese... you'll get "raves" on these every time!

2 tablespoons melted butter
1 cup sifted flour
1 egg, slightly beaten
1/2 cup grated Canadian cheese
1 cup Kellogg's All-Bran

1. Combine shortening, egg and milk; add All-Bran and let soak for five minutes.
2. Sift flour with baking powder and salt; add cheese. Add to first mixture and stir only until combined.
3. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 25 minutes. Yield: 9 muffins (2 1/2 inch size).

SHOULD YOU TREAT HAY FEVER and ASTHMA THE SAME WAY?

International Laboratories of London, England, who have specialized in treatments for Bronchial and Nasal complaints for 30 years, have found that two different preparations are needed to give satisfactory relief from the distress and discomforts of both Asthma and Hay Fever. All drug stores now have two new specialized treatments.

HAY FEVER

No longer need Hay Fever victims suffer the discomfort and distress of Hay Fever. They can stop the sneezing and discharge in a surprisingly short time and soothe the irritated membranes, with Azo salve. Azo comes in a tube with a special nozzle, which makes it easy to squeeze a little into each nostril.

Put out this article to remind you to ask your druggist today — he can give you full information and will supply you with whichever treatment you require.

ASTHMA

Because of ingredients not found in any other Asthma preparation Respatone, the new treatment safely helps to cut short the worst spasmodic attack in 30 seconds, to restore easy breathing in 15 to 30 minutes and to ensure the peaceful sleep you need. Sufferers from Bronchitis, Night Coughing, Chest Tightness and Wheeziness can also get speedy, safe relief from Respatone. Respatone is obtainable at all drug stores in three sizes, 75¢, $1.75 and the large economy size $5.

Interior Lawn Tennis Championships Will Be Revived Here July 4-9

Less than a year since their completion, Kelowna Lawn Tennis Club's new red clay courts will see the resumption of one of the most popular tennis events in the west—the interior of B.C. lawn tennis open championships.

This premier event in the local calendar comes off Monday, July 4, to Saturday, July 9, and officials of KLTC are completing arrangements as hosts of the meet.

This gala affair was last held in 1940 and as in years before many of the well-known players from all over the northwest came, played and were impressed with the standard of the local courts and the brand of western hospitality shown by club members and citizens at large.

Schedules and invitations already have gone out to all tennis clubs in the Pacific northwest and other provinces of Canada. Even a few have been sent to California and as far east as Toronto.

Major Tourney Ranking

The tournament committee, under the chairmanship of H. G. M. Gardner, Kelowna, is confident the interior championships soon can be built up again to their former drawing standards. For ranking purposes, the B.C. Lawn Tennis Association ranks this Kelowna tournament as a major do.

A glance over the list of defending champions indicates the calibre that appeared here for the 1940 18th annual championships. Here are the present cup holders:

Men's singles—J. Brown, Vancouver.

Ladies' singles—Caroline Deacon, Vancouver.

Men's doubles—J. Brown and T. Berto, both of Vancouver.

Ladies' doubles—Miss J. Eckhardt and Jocelyn Pease, both of Vancouver.

Mixed doubles—Jimmy Bardsley and Miss Pease, both of Vancouver.

Veterans' doubles—D. Wittet, San Diego, Calif., and W. Fuller, Kelowna.

Deadline for entries to be in the hands of the chairman is 6 p.m., July 2. All matches will be decided by the best of three sets, except in the finals in which men's only are concerned when a best of five will be played.

Appeal For Support

Other officials on the tournament committee are: W. Metcalfe, official referee; R. H. Stubbs, assistant referee; G. C. MacLaren, Anxious to make this tournament as successful as in years past and to make a fine impression of the many visitors, Mr. Gardner, tournament chairman, has made the following appeal:

"We respectfully ask the Kelowna citizenry to rally around and give this event their support as in former times. Many competitors have discovered the charms of our city through this medium and become regular visitors from then on."

Any inquiries should be addressed to H. G. M. Gardner, tournament chairman, 732 Sutherland Avenue, Kelowna.

RIFLE CHAMPIONS IN TOUGH BATTLE BEFORE WINNING

Franko Five Win Bullock-Lade With 445; Two Others Have 443

Largest number of competitors and bystanders since the war were on hand Sunday at the Kelowna range when E. Franko's squad edged out four other teams to capture the Bullock-Lade Shield, symbolic of the championship of the Kelowna B.C.D. Rifle Association.

Captain Franko's team ended with 445 points, just two points up on teams of George Hill and Percy Rankin, both tied with 443.

George Kennedy's squad was a close fourth with 440 while Dan Hills' quintet had to be content with fifth spot on their 420 points. Sharing the honors with Franko were the following team-mates: Paul Jansen, Jack Johnson, L. Renais and C. Henderson.

Youthful marksman Pat Mephram hauled the Kennedy Cup off the block when he tied George Hill in the 200-yard shooting and won out in the special "shootoff." Pat also won the cup given for the highest score in the two class.

Aggregate Champ

Aggregate championship went to Ron Weeks who consistently hit the targets on the 200, 500 and 600-yard ranges. Paul Jansen was runner-up in the aggregate.

Among the many competitors were two ladies—Mrs. H. Hildred and Miss Melba Kennedy. Miss Kennedy, a member of the team captained by her father, G. N. Kennedy, in her first attempt at competition will receive a cup given to the best "green" shot. She did remarkably well at the 600-yard target, scoring a three off the ultimate 32 to beat a number of old hands at the game.

Next Sunday local riflemen will take part in Kamloops invitational prize shoot. Anyone wishing to go along should get in touch with George Hill for particulars. Last year only six Kelowna sharpshooters competed, but they brought back four trophies.

GOLFERS CALL GENERAL MEETING

Reports on club financing and the recently installed sprinkling system will be the main topics of business at a special general meeting of the Kelowna Golf Club, called for Wednesday, June 22, at 7:30 p.m., at the club house.

A buffet supper at 6:30 will precede the meeting.

PEACHLANDERS RALLY TO WIN FROM RUTLAND

PEACHLAND — Peachland Ball Club entertained their old friends and rivals from Rutland Sunday afternoon and when the dust had cleared away and the runs counted, Peachland was on top 12-11.

George Ekins was the starting pitcher for Peachland with Verne Cousins catching. George got off to a bad start and Rutland had seven runs to their credit for the first two innings. With the score at 7-1 for Rutland, George held Rutland scoreless for the next four innings. In the meantime, the Peachland batters were busy and at the end of the sixth frame, the score was tied seven all. Ted Clements then took over from George, and at the end of the seventh, Rutland had taken over the lead again to the tune of 10-7. Going to bat the last of the ninth, Peachland was trailing behind 10-11. Archie Flintoff started off and the fifth time up to bat, again hit safely, four hits for four times up. Danny Cousins flied out. George Ekins got a nice two base hit. Ted Clements then singled and a bad throw from first base to home plate ruined the afternoon for Rutland as the ball got away from the catcher and two Peachland runners scurried across the plate to end the game.

Both teams put on a great show

POWERFUL CYO NINE TROUNCES KIN-BEES 18-5

Kamloops C.Y.O. Juniors kept their unbeaten string in league play intact at Kamloops Sunday by trouncing the Kelowna Kin-Bees 18-5 in a North Okanagan-Mainline Junior Baseball League fixture.

An eight-run initial-inning attack by the CYOers set off the fuse and the Kamloops rightlander, George Fowles, set the Kelowna lads down on eight scattered hits.

and Kenny Fulks had a perfect afternoon, getting a home run, a single, a triple and a double. Archie Flintoff, up to bat five times, had four hits and a walk. Ekins allowed seven runs in the first two innings, then settled down and pitched four innings without a run for Rutland. Clements pitched three innings, allowing four runs. Rutland had homers by T. Brumhart and P. Buch. Paul's home run in the seventh inning was hotly disputed, but it was allowed.

On the whole, fielding was good, several outstanding catches being made in the outfield.

The One The Budget Missed

THE SALES TAX

"This tax costs the Canadian Taxpayer 30 cents for every dollar of processed material."

Despite the "bribery" reductions in the Liberal "Election" budget, the above quotation from a Liberal member of Parliament gives a clear indication of what the government is doing to keep taxes high!

In 1940, Canada's total revenue from taxes amounted to $468 million. Now indirect taxes ALONE have reached $1,072 million!

The Liberal government's methods of applying indirect taxation—not the least of which is the eight per cent sales tax, originally imposed for the period of a wartime emergency—simply disguises the burden and distributes it harshly and unfairly!

PREDATOR BIRDS GETTING SCARCE HUNTERS REPORT

Present indications are that this year's Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club predator shoot will be even more successful than last year's.

At an executive meeting this month, it was revealed some 1,000 shells have been distributed to hunters turning in feet of crows, magpies, ravens, hawks and owls and approximately $20 paid out in bounties. The shoot started on Good Friday, April 16, and will last until June 30.

A KDRGC spokesman reported success for both the hunters and the game conservationists. He said there seemed to be hardly any crows and magpies left to shoot but some ravens and owls were reported still preying on game birds' nests and their young broods.

Another outcome of the recent meeting was the setting up of a junior membership in the club. Members of the Junior Rod and Gun Club will be charged a 50-cent fee and each will receive a special button.

The Labor Day trap shooting tournament again will be held in Kelowna. Previously in was the intention of the valley organization sponsoring the annual meet to hold it in Summerland.

Laface Holds Aces At Bay To Steer Bruins To Boxla League's Top Rung

KELOWNA'S battling Bruins are back in sole possession of top rung in the interior senior B boxla loop standing after a 20-9 victory at Salmon Arm Tuesday night that saw Bruins' goalie Al Laface at his best.

Bruins now have four wins in five tries for eight points, two better than the idle Vernon Tigers, holding second spot while the Salmon Arm Aces have yet to post their first victory.

But the Aces are getting stronger with every appearance. Tuesday night they carried the play against the Bruins more than half the way and outshot the visitors 34-32 on the 60 minutes of rugged but fairly clean action.

Laface the Bulwark
Playing an inspired and determined brand of lacrosse, the home-town goalie gave Laface little rest for the first three quarters. Aces were dealing accurate with their shooting and passing Tuesday, scoring 20 times on their 32 shots, with relayers garner 15 assists.

Ronnie Holland had his biggest night of the season this year, beating A. McLean, Aces' netminder, six times on seven shots and helping on two others for a total of eight points.

Terry O'Brien tallied three times and assisted twice while Vern Ardiel and Reg Martin both added four points to their individual totals.

Boxla-wise Ken Watt of Armstrong paced the losing cause by whipping three past Laface and assisting on another. Nick Polchek picked up a brace of goals for second best.

Aces Here Friday
Boxla officials announced after Tuesday night's game at Salmon Arm that the Aces, originally scheduled to make their initial appearance here on Friday, will do just that.

Last week the game had been arranged by mutual agreement for Saturday of this week. However, according to latest information, the Salmon Armers now cannot make it on Saturday, so the league fix-

Collegians' Four-Run Rally Beats Locals as Mohawks Embark on 40-Game Tour

MOHAWKS 7, RED SOX 5

CALIFORNIA'S collegiate all-star Mohawks came close to starting their Canadian barnstorming on the wrong foot at Elks Stadium Tuesday night but a last-ditch four-run rally did the trick.

A lanky, 19-year-old right-hander, Carl Strom, making his first appearance in a Red Sox uniform, seemed to have victory in the bag for the Kelowna squad, holding a 5-3 lead going into the top half of the ninth inning. But the classy touring Californians laid the wood to Strom's pitches in the finale to come up with a 7-5 triumph under the most trying conditions ever experienced locally.

Despite day-long efforts to soak the dirt diamond, the strong wind kept whipping up clouds of dust, forcing many brief halts during the game. Though attendance was cut to a fraction of what favorable playing conditions might have brought out, those who braved the blinding, choking dust were impressed with the high calibre of ball shown by both sides.

Hitting Spree
While the 250 fans predicted before the game the pitchers would have a distinct advantage with the dust on their side, such was not the case. A total of 19 base knocks were smashed out, including seven doubles, four of them by the Mohawks and three by Kelowna.

Dick Murray's boys made capital of three Mohawk errors—the only ones for the Californians in the game—in the third inning to erase a 2-1 lead and go out in front 5-2. The visitors scored an unearned run in the sixth but seemed to be headed for defeat until their uprising in the ninth.

Tired after a 300-mile trip by car from near the Oregon border where the Mohawks whipped Goldendale, Wash., 21-1 Monday night, the Californians themselves were not overly confident of taking the touted Red Sox into camp.

The collegiate crew, in their late teens and early twenties, left Kelowna Wednesday morning for a game against Kamloops Legion last night, on to Revelstoke for another game tonight and will appear in Vernon tomorrow night.

Their 40-game tour, with a game nearly every day, will take them back through Kelowna for a game at Grand Forks on Saturday. The Mohawks hit Alberta on June 27, the Yukon on July 7 and will start their Pacific Coast barnstorming against Vancouver All-Stars in Capilano Stadium July 23. They expect to be back home around August 1.

HICKORY HIGHLIGHTS—Eating grit may have caused it, but anyhow, the fans were in a fighting mood, heckling the umpires on end. . . . GLEN O'SHAUGHNESSY came close to smacking out the first homer in the new Elks Stadium. His hard hit ball in the sixth inning dropped at the left field fence, 300 feet from home plate.

... In that same field, DON PETERS, thankful for his six-three frame, pulled down a scrambling deer for the fielding gem of the day.

DICK CAESAREN, from San Mateo College, who batted .475 in helping his school win the junior college league championship this year, drove in the winning run and scored the seventh after doubling to deep centre in the ninth. . . . That's where WALLY LESMEISTER came in, with only one away, to retire the next two in order. . . . O'Shaughnessy and BOB KOENIG led the Sox hitting parade with three-for-four and two-for-four respectively. . . . Regular catcher KEN STEWART filled in at first base for HANK TOSTENSON, out with an ailing arm. . . . DAVE NEWTON took over behind the plate. . . . Sox meet BRIDGEPORT here Sunday in a league game at 2:30.

YOUR FUTURE... AND CANADA'S

Conditions have been good the last few years. More people are working than ever before — making more, spending more, saving more.

Isn't that what you want? After all, you have a family to think about... and you are planning for their future...

The Liberals are planning and working for your family's future too.

Here are some of the things the Liberals are doing:

Family Allowances are increased. Already a billion dollars has been invested in Canada's children. Millions of boys and girls are better clothed, fed and housed—have a better chance for an education and a real start in life—because of this Liberal measure. It has brought new security and well-being to countless Canadian homes.

In housing, too, the Liberals have taken the lead in providing Canadians with decent homes. More homes have been built in Canada, in relation to population, than in any nation. Already a million Canadians live in homes built since the war. The Liberal government is ready to help solve the low-rental housing problem and has offered its cooperation to provinces and municipalities.

Then, there is the Liberal health program. Already federal grants are helping the provinces to increase their health services. But the Liberals' aim is a nation-wide contributory health insurance plan which will end, for everyone, the tragedy of inadequate health care and the financial strain of lengthy illness.

Or take employment. Liberal measures are helping to maintain employment in Canada at record levels, and at the same time unemployment insurance reserves have been building up. The government has encouraged enterprise and high production. Plants have expanded, new industries started up. New opportunities are being created every day.

Old Age Pensions and pensions for the blind have been steadily increased by the Liberal government. But it isn't stopping there. Its aim is a nation-wide plan of contributory pensions which will help everyone to enjoy a comfortable and secure old age—automatically and as a right.

These are all part of the Liberal program of social betterment... a program to achieve a "national standard of social security and human welfare which assures the greatest possible measure of social justice to all Canadians."

SOX MUST WIN TO TAKE OVER FOURTH PLACE

Victory Over Bridgeport Here Sunday Could Boost Sox Into Tie With Oliver

Elks-sponsored Kelowna Red Sox have their sights set on fourth place when they meet Bridgeport here at Elks Stadium at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

At the present time, the Sox are holding down seventh spot in the standing with three wins as against four losses. A Kelowna team combined with losses for Oliver and Brewster would vault the Sox over Bridgeport into a tie for fourth with Oliver.

Coach Dick Murray this week was undecided on his starting lineup, but he was determined to even the score with the Washingtonians for their 9-3 win over Kelowna in the league opener at Bridgeport on April 24.

Kamloops Legion's first loss in league play after seven victories highlighted Sunday's doings. Grand Coulee blanked Legion 2-0 at the dam.

In other Sunday league fixtures Omak shut out hometown Tonasket 2-0, Oliver trounced the winless Oroville nine, 10-2, and Penitence walloped the visiting Bridgeporters 8-3. Kelowna beat Brewster 5-3 at Brewster.

Games this Sunday are: Bridgeport at Kelowna; Kamloops at Oliver; Brewster at Tonasket; Grand Coulee at Oroville; Penitence at Omak.

HOME REPAIR QUESTIONNAIRE

HOW IS THE BATHROOM?
Would the application of new, hard surfaced tile boards make the walls easier to clean and more attractive? Yes, Sylva-Tile and Lusterlite are ideal for bathroom walls. Sylva-Tile is a low-cost plywood wall paneling patterned in squares which you can enamel and stipple to suit your own color choice. Lusterlite is a masonite panel in tile pattern with a baked enamel coating in many pleasing colors.

Has the floor an easy-to-clean covering?
A Tile-Tex floor in your bathroom will stand lots of wear and provide a good durable surface against water and moisture.

Is your bathroom well painted?
Make sure you paint it with a good high gloss enamel such as Monamel. Don't make the mistake of painting a bathroom with a casein paint or flat wall finish. Never paint a small bathroom in bright colors—it will overwhelm you!

Is there a medicine cabinet conveniently placed?
We stock cabinets that fit flush into the wall. All steel with plate glass or sheet glass mirror and plywood cabinets with plate glass mirrors.

What accessories can be used to advantage?
Chromed chrome trim has many uses around the tub, sinks and as moulding. See our Chromex chrome fixtures—towel rods, tumbler holders, robe hooks, paper holders, toothbrush holders and soap dish.

TWO MOTORISTS GIVEN FINES

Two district motorists were fined in district police court Monday as a sequel to a Saturday morning collision on the Barlee stretch of the Okanagan highway that caused fairly heavy damage and slight injuries to an elderly Rutland man.
Peter A. Rivard, Rutland, charged with dangerous driving, was fined $20 and costs. Suptendary Magistrate G. A. McKay imposed a fine of $10 on John L. George, East Kelowna, for parking on the highway.
Treated for a head cut and shock was Alden Church, Rutland.
According to police the accident occurred during daylight when a third car—driven by Allan Gilroy, Kelowna—pulled to a stop behind George's parked car to allow traffic in the opposite direction to pass. Rivard's old model light delivery truck crashed into the rear of the Gilroy car, causing damage to both vehicles.
Church was a passenger in Rivard's truck. The George car was not involved in the accident.

of great interest right across the country. The CCF had freely stated in other sections that it had an excellent opportunity of winning this election. The overwhelming defeat the party received will undoubtedly affect its chances in the federal field in ten days time. It will also have a considerable bearing upon the voting in the federal election in British Columbia. For instance many Pro-Cons in Yale are now freely predicting the election of Mayor Theo Adams and the defeat of O. L. Jones, CCF sitting member.
Following is a list of the latest returns:

POLICE PRESS INVESTIGATIONS INTO BREAK-INS

Police are pressing investigations into the two Sunday night break-ins that netted the thief or thieves well over $100 in currency. Biggest loser was Mike's Dairy Bar, 1716 Richter Street, where from $100 to $200 in silver was taken. The Rendezvous, a short distance away from the dairy bar at 615 Harvey Avenue lost $13.75 in cash.

An attempted entry, also on Sunday night, in the Kelowna Dry-goods store, 631 Harvey Avenue, was interrupted when the proprietor, J. W. Cates, domiciled there, was awakened. A suspect later was taken into custody but released due to lack of sufficient evidence to convict.

Police believe the break-ins were committed by the same person or persons.

Democratic Countries Threatened With Minority Getting Control Over Majority, Says Union Leader

DEMOCRATIC countries are in danger of a minority group seizing the reins of power over the majority unless every individual makes a point of exercising their franchise, members of the Trades and Labor Council were informed at a public meeting in the Scout Hall Tuesday night.

This statement was made by W. F. Mahoney, district organizer for the T.L.C., who addressed the meeting before introducing Miss Ruth Taylor, well-known in labor circles throughout the United States and Canada.

Mr. Mahoney claimed that labor has a major task in bringing before the public, discussions of vital problems directly concerning the working man. This program of enlightenment is necessary and requires a tremendous amount of effort on the part of those interested in the welfare of labor in order to achieve this task, he declared.

Miss Taylor criticized those people who regard elections as a mere horse race, and stated that citizens should not only be critical and co-operative, but should also treat the government with respect and dignity.

Mr. Mahoney pointed out that the world is changing rapidly and that the tempo of this change has been considerably speeded up by the two world wars and the interim period. He stated that in the normal course of events, it is not until a century has passed that a change in the government of a country is effected. It is up to the people to assess and analyze this change and subsequently adjust the social machinery to keep pace, he said. At present many are still thinking in terms of the old horse and buggy era.

Urged to Vote

Continuing Mr. Mahoney regretted the politically apathetic attitude of the people, adding that one third of the people entitled to vote did not take advantage of their privilege. He claimed that democracy is in danger and the possibility that a minority group could seize the reins of power over the majority, is not impossible under these circumstances.

In conclusion, Mr. Mahoney stated that labor is not partisan, but this does not mean it is not vitally interested in politics. He said that politics mean the science of government, and as well trained citizens, labor is vitally interested in the government of the country. He urged the people to choose that party which proposed a solution to current problems.

Opening her address, Miss Taylor stated that she was not an organized labor, she did not mean regimented labor. Organized labor is a group of people who can act as individuals knowing what they are doing, not as a class, party, but as a group of citizens interested in social legislation. Miss Taylor said she is tired of the way people treated elections as horse races, and stated that every citizen should be critical and co-operative to political parties, but treat the government with respect and dignity.

In regard to elections, she urged the people to vote for friends, but to carefully look at the record of these friends. Concerning unions, she pointed out that workers do not join unions just for benefits, but freely as a responsible unit to work for their fellow men. She related how a business man said, "Labor is the strongest force today and if it ever finds its power, there will be nothing we can do. That is why we treat it kindly." Miss Taylor claimed, however, that realism is not necessarily looking down at the mud. Looking at the stars is just as realistic and as a rule gets you farther.

Good Citizens

Miss Taylor explained how a union membership is a passport, showing that the member belongs to a responsible group; is well-trained in being a good citizen, and is capable of working together with fellow workers. Belonging to a union is not just paying dues and giving service to the leaders, she stated. It is learning to be a good citizen.

Miss Taylor said on the whole, organized labor is conservative in attitude. Conservatism is the keeping or protecting from injury, she pointed out, and labor unions are constructive, not destructive. They advocate conservation of child life, greater educational opportunities, no child labor, conservation of health, better working conditions, conservation of family life, shorter working hours, better living conditions, conservation of the mind, improved educational facilities, and conservation of the country.

Pertaining to the latter, Miss Taylor said labor was the first to fight, the first to adopt new ideas, the first to realize the dangers of fascism and communism and the first to go on record against it. She also said that unions stand for conservatism of spirit and pledge allegiance to one God.

Claiming that revolution meant a turning over, Miss Taylor said unions achieved their aims through political action, not as a political party, but as an integral part of the community.

Present at the signing of the North Atlantic pact, Miss Taylor said she was overwhelmed at the difference in the attitude of the participants. It wasn't just another pact, but a joining together of free men who believed that they couldn't progress without co-operation.

In conclusion, Miss Taylor stated that she would like to see more active interest and participation on the part of individuals in politics. In some instances she said unions have fined men in order to make sure they used their vote. She said it was not only a man's duty to his government, but also a duty to his union.

She claimed that unionism is not an end in itself but a road to an end, upholding the principle of unity and the common good. She pointed out that good politics require good citizens and that the unions all over the United States and Canada are training their members to become good citizens.

On being questioned about labor as a party in government, as exemplified in Great Britain's Labor government, Miss Taylor stated that labor in this continent is not a class like it is in England, but was a cross section of the people, and therefore could not apply over here.

T.B. CLINIC AT PEACHLAND BIG SUCCESS

Institute in England Thanks Peachland W.I. for Recent Food Parcel

FLOWER SHOW

Members Hear Reports on Recent W.I. Conference Held at Osoyoos

PEACHLAND—The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Municipal Hall on Friday afternoon of last week. A letter was received from the adopted Institute in England, thanking Peachland for the food parcel they had sent.

Miss P. Cameron, convener of agriculture, gave a short report on the plans for the flower show which was held today, Thursday, in the Legion Hall. The president, Mrs. A. E. Miller, reported the T.B. Clinic had been a wonderful success, 364 people attending. The canvassers had worked hard and had received good co-operation.

Letters of thanks were also sent to G. W. Hewitson, G. M. Finlayson, Geo. Birkeland, Mrs. O. Williamson and Mrs. S. G. Dell. The fair lists have been compiled and as soon as they are printed will be distributed to the members.

Mrs. A. E. Miller gave a report on the W.I. rally held at Osoyoos on May 5. Mr. Armstrong, chairman of the board of commissioners, welcomed the gathering, she said, and as a group of citizens interested in social legislation. Miss Taylor said she is tired of the way people treated elections as horse races, and stated that every citizen should be critical and co-operative to political parties, but treat the government with respect and dignity.

She also extended a hearty welcome to the visitors, as also did Mrs. Simpson, president of the Osoyoos W.I. Mrs. East, provincial president, gave a short address on the qualifications of citizenship, and asked the delegates to make an effort to make new Canadians feel at home. She also touched on the W.I. Memorial Fund, asking the Institutes to send exhibits to the National Exposition. She also referred to the report from the Institutes, the department of agriculture to W.I. work. Reports of the Institutes followed, and a delightful lunch was served in the hall. After lunch there were more interesting reports from the Institutes, and Mrs. Simpson, president of Osoyoos W.I., gave a paper on "The Institute and Community Welfare", giving an account of the first W.I. of Stony Creek, which was started February 19, 1897. She stressed the necessity of more medical and dental clinic work, and told how the young people could be helped, with Girl Guides, home making, cooking and sewing. She said, too, few women vote. "We should try to understand the laws of our country, and stress for better government," she declared.

Mrs. S. E. Cameron, superintendent of W.I. in B.C., said there are 212 Institutes in B.C., that Summerland W.I. came first in B.C. in the Tweedsmuir Cup Contest for a hooked rug and the essay. She gave an interesting and comprehensive talk on the achievements of the Institutes through the years. At the conclusion of the conference, tea was served by the Oliver W.I.

Mrs. C. T. Redstone moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Miller for her interesting report. Mrs. Wm. H. Wilson held a flower contest, and tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. L. Ayres, Mrs. F. E. Witt and Mrs. W. H. Wilson.

Mrs. J. Lahlgren and children, and Mrs. E. K. Phillips, of Bellington, Wash., were guests recently at the home of Mrs. E. Young.

Mrs. R. Follett and children returned to the coast Friday of last week after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. West, of Trepianier.

Mrs. C. W. Aitkens returned home Wednesday of last week.

Miss M. Leach left last week for a trip to the East.

Mrs. M. Dell left Friday of last week to visit at QuPelle, Sask.

NURSES BODY HOLDS MEETING

The final meeting of the season of the Auxiliary to the Nurses' Residence was held on Monday evening, June 13, at the home of Mrs. W. Hill.

Mrs. C. McClure, convener of the cedar chest raffle, reported the chest and contents had been won by Miss Frances Weninger, of Kelowna. The buying committee was authorized to purchase a large supply of bed linen, pillow cases, bed spreads, blankets and curtains for the Nurses' Residence. Approximate expenditure would amount to $150.

A large chesterfield in the living-room of the residence is to be re-conditioned and re-upholstered. The president stated that fees are due and payable to the treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. V. Cumming, September 12.

HOWARD WILLSON LAUNCHES INTO NEW ENTERPRIZE

Takes Over Local Agency for Heating and Air-Conditioning Device

Howard Willson, 593 Sutherland avenue, who was stricken with arthritis many years ago, and who is a familiar figure on city streets as he travels around in a motor vehicle, has launched out into another line of business.

Mr. Willson has taken over the local agency for Heat Pump Ltd., a modern heating and conditioning which manufactures a modern heating and air conditioning unit. This unit, known as a "heat pump" is actually a refrigerator in reverse, and eliminates the handling of coal, wood or oil and delivers only clean, healthful heat either as air-conditioning or hot water heating.

The home-heating device is now being manufactured in Vancouver. Mr. Willson explained the "heat pump" will cool the home in the summer as easily as it provides warmth in the winter.

The machine extracts heat from the air through 3/4 inch copper tubing. This heat is then poured back into the room. It can be installed in any out-of-the-way corner, or even outside the main building. "You can put the pipes in air, soil or water," he said. "Operating cost is about 40 percent of oil costs." The pumps are selling well in the U.S. and several are already in Vancouver homes.

Okanagan Mission School May be Ready in Oct.

OKANAGAN MISSION—Directors of the Okanagan Mission Community Hall Association held their monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Smallman last Monday. Secretary N. Apsey reported that the school building, the secretary of School District No. 23, and the new school is expected to be ready for use some time in October. They would, in the meantime, move the partitions used for the school purposes, from the hall for the two months holiday, thus leaving the hall available for rental purposes.

A committee was selected to arrange some means of entertainment during this period to help swell the treasury. Work will commence on the addition as soon as help is available and while the children are on holiday.

Secretary also reported on attending a meeting in Kelowna school library as a representative of the T.B. learn about the Students' Assistance Association. A letter was read and discussed with the result a donation of $10 was made.

It was reported that Chief Fred Gore had approached the members in regard to setting up an organized fire district with the hall as a centre. It was decided to call a public meeting in the district some time in July to discuss this project, which would be of general interest. The president will notify the members of the next meeting.

Mr. T. E. Hughes returned last week from a trip accompanying his brother Charles Hughes over the Princeton Highway and Chilliwack district.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Johnston are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son at the Kelowna General Hospital recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic DeHart have as their guest for the summer, Mrs. DeHart's mother, Mrs. Duncan Ross, Galiano Island.

Mrs. J. B. Hall, with Dick and Buster, spent Sunday at Nanaimo where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Taylor while Buster took part in the cricket tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Reid have been spending the summer holidays with them, Mrs. Reid's son, Robert Hetherington, who arrived on Monday from University of Toronto.

Miss Theresa (Terry) Wallace, of Joe Rich, spent the week-end visiting Miss Judy Young.

A very enjoyable having party was held last Wednesday evening commencing at Mountain Gardens and attended by Hugh Dunlop and son Ian and "Budgie" and "Chico" Barker. Due to adverse conditions the having was not completed but the party wound up around 1 a.m.

Mrs. Weir, of Saskatchewan, is the guest of her sister, Miss Mac Warner, at Okanagan Auto Court, for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Screaton are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter at the Kelowna General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ivans had as their guest over the week-end, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Caputo with Patty Lou, of Trail, B.C.

EAST KELOWNA GUILD TO HOLD 'BERRY SOCIAL

EAST KELOWNA—The regular monthly meeting of the Parish Guild was held at the home of Mrs. G. D. Fitzgerald on Tuesday, June 7, when plans were made for a strawberry social, to take place June 24 in the garden of Mrs. H. R. Perry.

The kneelers for the church are now complete, and in use. Afternoon tea was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smallman are spending a holiday in Kelowna and district where they are visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Smallman were former East Kelowna residents before leaving to make their home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Price have returned from a visit to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Middleton have moved into their new home on the upper bench.

Mrs. L. E. Elvedahl is a patient in the Kelowna General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strang Jr. are now living on Mr. F. Turton's property.

Mr. George Millar is a patient in the Kelowna General Hospital.

VISITING HERE

Ian Warren, passenger traffic manager, Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, is visiting Kelowna today in the course of his first official inspection tour of the company's British Columbia offices. Mr. Warren will tour the Kootenay and Okanagan district before proceeding to the Coast and to Vancouver Island. Mr. Warren will be accompanied by W. D. Buchanan, general passenger agent.

OYAMA—Mrs. Prickard will entertain at a garden party on Wednesday, June 22, in her lovely garden here.

FISHING IN VALLEY LAKES AND STREAMS

(This information is published by The Kelowna Courier as an aid to anglers. It is prepared by Jim Treadgold from week-end reports.) OKANAGAN LAKE—Very good. Some fine catches have been made this past week. Plugs and surface lines are still the favorites. Boat rentals report best catches of the year are coming in. This lake appears to have come on with many fishermen reporting good catches over the week-end. TERRY SCHAEFER reports a limit catch on the fly. OYAMA LAKE—Poor on Sunday. DEE LAKE CHAIN—Very good. All lakes in the chain reported good. DOREEN off on Sunday but GEORGE and ALBERT REITH caught 15 here from two four rods last week and a MR. BURBANKY from Seattle took a seven-pounder. MEL TAYLOR caught a five-pounder at LOST LAKE for the first fish of the season reported there. CARIBOO LAKE—Good catches of small fish reported. MR. McEACHERN reports wana a must with a small willow-like spoon. Road good. FISH LAKE—Very good. MR. WOLFE and JIM WARDLAW reported very good luck, with fish up to two pounds. No boats available for rental here. Spinners and worms. ISLAND LAKE showing no signs of life as yet. BEAR LAKE—Good. Fly fishermen are reporting good catches, and fair catches have been reported on spoons and plugs. CECIL BRETT got a limit catch on the fly on Sunday. Road good right to the lake. SHANNON LAKE—Fishing good. BELGO DAM—First report of the season says fishing poor. Roads fair. WOODS LAKE—Fair. Most parties are getting fish, which are found in fine condition. A nice place to fish after work for a few hours. Evening fishing reported best.

POSTILL LAKE—Good. JACK VANDERMITTEN reports a limit catch on Sunday on the fly. SOUTH LAKE reported improving. MILL and MISSION CREEKS—Fair on flies and small spinners and worms. MARA LAKE—No reports. MAHEL LAKE—Poor. Reports indicate that fishing has been slow the past week. LITTLE RIVER—Spotty. MR. ANGERS reports spotty conditions on the fly and reports the fry are moving through the river. Some fishermen in the choice spots in the river have landed good catches while for others fishing was not so good. With the fry running, angling should improve. PILLAR and PINAUS LAKES—No reports.

"Camels' hair" brushes are made from the fur of a species of squirrel.

Combined Heating, Cooling System To Provide Theatre Patrons With Fresh Air at Right Temperature

A COMBINED heating and cooling, ventilating and air conditioning plant providing fresh air of exactly the right temperature at a volume equal to that enclosed within a large residence will assure patrons of the new Paramount Theatre a healthy and comfortable atmosphere at all seasons.

Automatically controlled by a mechanical "brain centre," with provision for manual operation, the large scale replacement of air in the theatre's auditorium is accomplished without the slightest hint of draft.

Despite extremes in temperature which patrons may have left behind, they are aware only that air around them remains at a constant temperature and that it stays fresh regardless of capacity attendance.

In line with the concepts of modern theatre construction, the design of the air conditioning unit of the Paramount Theatre was given a high degree of attention and study. Many movie-goers not only want to be completely comfortable, while watching action on the screen, but often are seeking relaxation after a rigorous shopping tour or day at the office in unpleasantly hot or cold weather. The main problem is to afford the movie goer absolute freedom from any form of discomfort or distractions at all seasons.

To provide this pleasing environment, a complicated system of outlets to the auditorium and "exhaust" outlets through which used air could escape, was designed. Fresh air is poured into the auditorium through pipes running along the ceiling, while rows of "mushroom" outlets have been placed strategically along the floor under the seats.

The air is first filtered, then heated or chilled as required and finally forced by a fan through the metal conduit pipes running the length of the ceiling and thus distributed evenly throughout the auditorium. The "mushrooms" suck the foul air down through the floor preventing any stale odors or dust tracked in from the outside from reaching nose level.

Some of this used air returns to the conditioning unit where it is mixed with fresh air from the outdoors and treated and heated or cooled as the weather requires. Some escapes to the outside. A further system of exhausts takes care of any excessive pressure of air, acting as an escape valve when the ratio of air moving through the regular apparatus is not in balance.

Free From Impurities
The air conditioning installations provide approximately 600 cubic feet of fresh air—drawn directly from the out-of-doors for each patron per hour. The used air, making up about 60 percent of the volume passing through the conditioning unit, is drawn from the front of the auditorium where it is comparatively free from impurities.

The temperature of the auditorium is set at all times to afford not only a comfortable atmosphere for those already seated, but also to eliminate any slight shock which might otherwise be experienced by patrons upon entering the auditorium on a day when the weather outside is extremely hot or cold.

This means that a slightly lower than normal temperature will be desirable in winter months while a slightly warmer auditorium is necessary in summer.

It is also pointed out that on most occasions when people complain of the discomfort of hot weather there is a lot of truth in the saying, "It isn't the heat, it's the humidity." For this reason, cooling coils in the Paramount Theatre's air conditioning system are designed to serve a double purpose, to cool and also to draw off the moisture from air passing through.

Thus, by means of this equipment, it is often possible to effect a completely comfortable atmosphere within a theatre auditorium with little or no change in temperature.

The cooling system incorporates a refrigeration plant operated by "freon." Heating of the theatre must be sufficient to treat not only air that is drawn into the theatre but must also compensate for ordinary heat losses through the walls and roof. The massive oil burner situated in the boiler room directly behind the stage is capable of sufficiently heating the auditorium in even the coldest of weather.

Cooling Coils
During the cold weather the cooling coils are easily changed over into heating coils.

In addition to the air conditioning of the auditorium itself, there are mechanical exhausts directly to the outside from all washrooms, powder rooms, etc., to prevent any air from these places escaping into the auditorium. Other exhausts carry air from store rooms, projection booth, generator and rewinding rooms, the foyer and office and from all other points where the public may congregate.

CRAFTS DISPLAY BEING PLANNED AT PEACHLAND

Peachland Handicraft Club to Hold Annual Exhibition Friday Night

PEACHLAND — The Peachland Handicraft Club will hold its annual exhibition of arts and crafts in the Legion Hall on Friday night, June 17, at 8 p.m. Rev. C. O. Whinton will probably open the exhibition.

The handicraft club has been working throughout the winter months and now have quite an assortment of articles to display. Arts and crafts of interested citizens are also requested and will be on display. The public is invited and refreshments will be served. Committees in charge are: John Mohler; Kurt Duml; Frank Bradley; Walter Ratzlaff; Andy Khalamback; P. C. Gerrie; Charlie Wollite and Rev. H. S. McDonald.

The first electric railway link in service in Canada ran between Windsor and Walkerville, Ontario. It was established in July of 1886.

WILSON'S LANDING—Mr. and Mrs. Treadgold, their family, and party of Kelowna, held a beach party here on Sunday, June 12.

Ideal sunny weather contributed to making the sports and activities participated in during the day's events a huge success. Accordion music added to the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Treadgold, of Vernon, motored up for the day to join in the happy activities. Five cars and two large cabins transported the picnickers.

Mr. W. A. C. Bennett and Mr. R. Todd were visitors in the district last Saturday.

Aquatic Ripples

There's just one topic of conversation at the Aquatic Club these days... the membership drive. If enthusiasm and persistence are any criterion, the auxiliary should go over the top in no time. The larger the membership, the sooner the realization of the new building.

The drive winds up Saturday with something special planned by the gals... with Ogopogo playing a major role assisted by 1947 Lady-of-the-Lake Betty Ball and her bathing beauties.

Humorous highlight: That futuristic caravan skulking through Kelowna's side streets early Sunday morning, when two well-known A.C.T. members literally rode the Ogopogo. We hear one of the boys now drinks his morning coffee standing up.

A bit windy Sunday for the Rowing Club, but Herb Capozzi and some of the boys harnessed their energies to the paddles of the war canoe. Dave Leckie, club proxy, tells us the clubroom is now in ship-shape condition. From now on we'll be seeing plenty of action from those boys as they train for the B.C. championship at the coast again this year. Spokesman Jack Dawson overboard has a sequel... the retaliation kick made a poor connection and Jack is now nursing a broken toe. Best lily quidding job of the week... Herb in his white nylon swim trunks.

Our entertainment director, the versatile Herb, gave up a peek at coming events. Weekly band concerts will begin in July. That's for us... music under the stars, waltzing over the still waters... mmmmm. Something brewing in the hoo-down department... possibility of square dance practices free to members of the club. Could be we could polish off a reel or two before the Hubbly Hop the Auxiliary is planning for Wednesday, June 29. More positive in the What's New department... Aquatic-sponsored ballroom dancing classes for members every Tuesday night in the lounge... sounds like a solid idea. Keith Thornber who taught for Arthur Murray, tells us he's going to teach privately or in classes up to ten, and is especially interested in the teen crowd... no excuse now, kids. As for us, we're signing up for the Rumba class... sil sil. So we're off for some limbering exercises... one, two, three, whoops! See you next week.

Baby birds often eat more than their own weight in food daily.

Two Well-Known Okanagan Families United by Wedding

WESTBANK—A wedding of wide interest uniting two well-known Okanagan families was solemnized in Westbank on Wednesday afternoon, June 8, when Gwyneth Eleanor, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Reece, Westbank, became the bride of Kenneth Frederick, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Harding, Kelowna.

The bride chose the hour of four o'clock for the ceremony in Westbank United Church which was decorated for the occasion with peonies in many lovely shades. The officiating minister was the Rev. H. S. McDonald, of Westbank and Peachland United Churches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in white nylon sheer, the bodice of which featured a lace-edged V neck and three-quarter length sleeves trimmed with shirring. The full skirt, made with accordion-pleated insets back and front, ended with a short train. Graduating rows of lace ruffles trimmed the sleeves. Her veil of embroidered net fell from a bandeau of pearls, and her mitted hands held a shower bouquet of cream roses, pink and white carnations and gypsophylla. Her groom's gift was a two-strand pearl necklace, and for "something old" she carried her mother's lace-edged wedding handkerchief. "Something borrowed" was a cameo brooch.

Attendants were the bride's younger sister, Miss Elizabeth Reece, and Miss Joyce Harding, sister of the groom. Little Claire Stafford, the bride's niece, was daintily groomed in a long dress of choice for Miss Reece while Miss Harding wore white over pastel yellow. The bridesmaids featured off-the-shoulder effects with bands of deep lace and puffed sleeves. The full skirts were finished with delicate lace insertions at the hem and edged with flounces of nylon. Their halo hats of white braid were trimmed with tulle and flowers to match the pastel tints of their gowns.

Both bridesmaids carried fan-shaped bouquets, Miss Reece's being of mauve and white sweet peas and pink snapdragons. Miss Harding's was composed of mauve, yellow and white sweet peas.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Doug Harding. The organist was Mrs. J. L. Dobbin and during the signing of the register Miss Doris Dain sang "O, Perfect Love."

The garden at the home of the bride's parents provided a perfect setting for the reception, where the principals and their parents received the 200 guests. The bride's mother wore navy printed silk, with a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Harding's dusty rose dress was set off with black accessories.

NEWLY-MARRIED COUPLE WILL RESIDE HERE

Beautiful pink and white peonies set the scene for the lovely June wedding of Violet Frieda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Appel, and Leonard Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rosentreter all of Rutland, on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 7, in the First Baptist Church, Rev. W. Wachlin officiating.

Given away by her father, the bride was groomed in traditional white satin styled with high-pointed collar and applied sweetheart neckline highlighting the fitted bodice, while her full skirt swept into a bustle. Her long veil was fastened by a heart-shaped headpiece and for her only ornament, the bride wore a gold locket, gift of the groom. Harmonizing with the pink and white motif, the bride carried a bouquet of pink peonies.

Members of the decorating committee under Miss Joyce Reinhold, have been feverishly painting signs to be displayed all over town in connection with this membership drive.

Permission has been obtained to decorate the government office window on Bernard Avenue, advertising the Regatta. Mrs. Kay Buckland and Mrs. Harold Johnston are in charge of this project.

Miss Janet Scotland has been chosen to head the committee to choose the Aquatic association's candidate for Lady-of-the-Lake contest. The sum of $200 has been voted by the members to put in trust for furnishings for the new Aquatic building. It is hoped that this sum will form a nucleus for building up a fund for furnishings.

Following the lovely afternoon ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, as best man, while Ethel Magee and Lloyd Appel, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The groom was supported by his mother, Mrs. Rosentreter, who chose a soft blue crepe afternoon dress, in receiving the guests. Both mothers of the principals highlighted their ensembles with corsages of pink and white carnations.

QUIET FAMILY WEDDING HELD IN KELOWNA

A quiet family wedding was solemnized on Thursday, June 9, when Joan, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pavle, was given in marriage to Ronald, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Farner, Kelowna.

The bride was attended by Louise Kirshner as bridesmaid, and little Betty Pavle as flower girl, while the groom was supported by Ed Keen, as best man, and Roland Menuier and W. Falve, ushers.

Following the quiet ceremony, a reception for the immediate family was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple left for a honeymoon at the coast.

Miss E. J. Jernman, of Vancouver, spent a few days in this city last week-end, guest of Mrs. Ethel Magee.

'Round the Town

By JOAN GRIMMETT

A blaring sound truck, a carload of bathing beauties captained by ex-Lady-of-the-Lake Betty Ball, and faithful old Ogopogo mounted on all his glory on a trailer full of blue crepe paper sea, will take Bernard Avenue by storm this Saturday afternoon.

Investigators of the parade are members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Aquatic Association who are pushing for a big drive to boost the sale of membership tickets to the Aquatic Club.

Now that summer is really here, a steady stream of hot dusty people pours down towards the beach on the dot of five o'clock for a refreshing dip after a strenuous day's work. Focal point of this stream seems to be the Aquatic Club with its diving racks, safely guarded pool and cool verandas.

As always, Fashion comes First, especially in the line of bathing suits and sportswear. This summer the bathing suits tend to be slim one and two piece models. Dealt suited for strenuous swimming and diving, at the same time baring the maximum to the sun. Life-guard Jane Stirling prefers the smartly styled one piece wool suit in a rich royal blue to complement her gorgeous tan, while Joyce Reinhold prefers a smooth strapless white.

Once swimming is over for the day more cover-up sportswear is desirable. Shorts and blouses are the most popular, topped by casual sweaters or casual blazers for cooler hours. Helen de Pyfffer favors crisp white shorts and peasant blouse while Doreen Wokely prefers shorts styled in her favorite robin's egg topped by a tailored white blouse.

By the end of the hot sticky summer day, the question always pops up concerning what to wear for the long summer evening ahead. Something cool is always preferable, but a light wrap is usually necessary for later in the evening. A brand new fashion shop opening today in the new Paramount Theatre block, carries a full line of the latest fashions in all the top New York and Californian styles.

Fashions to fit every mood are carried by this streamlined store, which features better dresses, coats and suits in season, name brands in sportswear and lingerie. However, for the summer evenings, the new jacket dress is suggested for warm into cool hours. Soft printed crepes highlighted by crisp taffetas in a harmonizing shade often with jackets of wool or featuring the longer three quarter length sleeves, cottons, shantungs, and eyelets are popular, styled in the classic cap sleeve, round necker, without their accompanying jackets for early evening. The brief but warm jacket, however, proves extremely welcome, later on in the evening.

As the summer creeps up and finally overwhelms us, so do events on the social roster. The weeks seem to be getting busier and fuller as the summer progresses. And the Aquatic Club, the centre for most of the social activity, is humming like a busy hive.

Delegates to the Pharmaceutical Society Convention stage a big dance here last night while members of the Registered Nurses' Association are holding their gala annual dance at the club tonight. Saturday is the scene of the regular

Outstanding Local Musician Presents Delightful Recital

A nineteen-year-old local musician, Eileen Graham, assisted by Gerald Jarvis, violinist, of Vancouver, presented a pleasing recital last Thursday evening, at the Scout Hall under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

These two students have recently been honored by the Royal Academy of Music which offered them scholarships for study next year in London, England. Miss Graham will leave for England in September to take advantage of the scholarship. Only two such scholarships are given yearly in Canada.

Eileen Graham opened the program with "Two Sonatas" by Scarlatti, and the "Sonata in C Major" by Mozart, with a maturity of understanding and technique that Making his first appearance in Handel's "Sonata in E Major," Gerald Jarvis was accompanied by Miss Graham. This young violinist has an unusually fine tonal quality, achieved with apparent ease and artistic integrity.

Encoring to the enthusiastic applause, Mr. Jarvis played the charming and brilliant "From the Cane Brake" by Samuel Gardiner. Eileen Graham returned to the stage to play the outstanding work of the evening, Schumann's "Sonata in G Minor." The manner in which she brought out the sweep and powerful originality of this grand music, was an unusual feat in a musician so young.

The second portion of the program opened with a modern group played by Miss Graham. First of these were the two impressionistic pieces by Debussy, "The Sunken Cathedral" and "The Girl With the Flaming Hair." Her charming rendition of the poetic "Moon and the Nightingale" by Granados was in part due to the delicate and lace-like quality of Miss Graham's playing.

A brilliant climax to the highly successful recital was the final group played by Miss Graham including "The Maiden's Wish" by Chopin-Liszt, "Mazurka in B-flat Minor" and "Scherzo in B-flat Minor" both by Chopin. The Scherzo with its sensitive interpretation and truly artistic rendition was a highlight of the delightful program.

The enthusiastic ovation of the audience forced Miss Graham to encore again and again. Among her encores were "The Little White Donkey" by Jacques Ibert, the ever-charming and familiar "Waltz in F Minor" by Chopin, and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" as a thrilling conclusion to a thrilling evening.

Kelowna may well be proud of this talented young musician. At the conclusion of the performance, friends showered flowers and gifts on the young musician, taking this opportunity to say good-bye before she leaves for England in September.

SUPERFLUITY SHOP TO OPEN ON SATURDAY

Final plans for the re-opening of the Superfluity Shop was the main topic of business at the regular meeting of the Dr. W. J. Knox Chapter of the I.O.D.E. held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. A. C. Bennett.

Convenor of the Superfluity Shop, Mrs. J. T. Cruise, reported that all is now in readiness for the re-opening of the shop in the Kelowna Furniture Store on Saturday afternoon, June 18.

Treasurer, Mrs. D. J. Kerr, announced that the proceeds of the Alexandra Rose Tag Day amounted to $284.10. This amount will be divided equally between this chapter and the Mary Ellen Boyce Chapter and will be used for child welfare. Mrs. Kerr also reported that acknowledgement had been received from Miss P. Lush, England, for the food parcel sent by this chapter.

A ten dollar donation was voted to the Lloyd Jones Home, Educational convener Mrs. J. Morry reported on the meeting of the Kelowna and District student assistance fund which she attended as chapter representative.

Mrs. R. P. Walrod, post war service convenor, stated that she has a shipment of sewn and knitted garments, and used clothing ready to be forwarded to European relief.

Mrs. P. K. Farner and Mrs. T. J. Cruise gave a comprehensive report on the I.O.D.E. national meeting held at the Empress Hotel in Victoria from May 28 to June 1.

Two new members were installed into the chapter. They included Miss Christina Berth and Mrs. Max de Pyfffer.

PIANO PUPILS WILL PRESENT TWO RECITALS

Pupils of Mrs. Ethel Magee, well-known in local musical circles, will present two recitals on Tuesday, June 21, at St. Joseph's Hall.

Junior students will begin their program at 2:30 p.m. while intermediate and senior students will appear the same evening at 8:15. An interesting and varied program of piano and vocal arrangements will highlight the day's entertainment.

Anyone interested in music and the progress of the children in musical fields is invited to attend either the afternoon or evening presentation.

3 ELECTION HIGHLIGHTS

returns were known. There was no doubt now. Everybody congratulated their standard-bearer.

His wife kissed him. But still no word of giving up from Mr. Wilkinson.

At 8:59, Mr. Wilkinson, accompanied by Gordon Herbert, his campaign manager, and Jack Snowsell, strode into the Orange Hall. He grasped Mr. Bennett's hand firmly, congratulated him. "It was a good clean fight," he said. "Quiet!" Mr. Bennett had to call several times over the din of voices and radio accounts before he could announce the concession. With arms upraised he pronounced these vital four words: "Mr. Wilkinson has conceded!" And then . . . "Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson." Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilkinson. Three cheers for Mr. Wilson.

Theatre Heads

Arriving in this city yesterday, Lawrence I. Bearg, of Toronto, and Frank Gow, of Vancouver, executives of the Famous Players Canadian Corporation, will officiate at the opening ceremonies of Kelowna's new Paramount Theatre tonight.

Mr. Bearg is western division manager, while Mr. Gow is the western supervisor and inspector of theatres, having all the Famous Players theatres in this province under his jurisdiction with the exception of the few "downtown" Vancouver theatres.

Not pictured, but also in the city for the theatre opening, is B. J. McCausland, of Vancouver, supervisor and head of maintenance.

WELL-KNOWN VALLEY MAN PASSES AWAY

Another link with the early history of the Okanagan was broken yesterday, Wednesday, June 15, with the death in Kelowna General Hospital of Herbert Noel Rheam in his 76th year. He has been in failing health for several months.

A native of England, Mr. Rheam first came to the Okanagan shortly after the turn of the century. During his youth he was well-known for his prowess as a polo player. About 45 years ago he settled in Okanagan Centre where he operated a private hotel. He retired some time ago.

Funeral service will be held from the Winfield Anglican Church on Saturday, June 18, at 2:30 p.m., Rev. F. D. Wyatt officiating. Interment will be in Winfield cemetery. His widow, Alice, survives at Okanagan Centre.

Day's Funeral Service is in charge of arrangements.

FUNERAL RITES HELD HERE

Last rites for John George Hartmeir, retired contractor and sports enthusiast, were conducted by Rev. C. B. Garratt, Free Methodist Church, from the chapel of Day's Funeral Service on Wednesday, June 8, followed by interment in Kelowna cemetery.

Resident in Kelowna for the past four years, Mr. Hartmeir passed away in hospital here after a lengthy illness. An ardent curler and follower of many sports, Mr. Hartmeir was a contractor for many years in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Mr. and Mrs. Hartmeir resided in Roblin, Man., before coming to Kelowna.

Besides his widow, Annie, 743 Cadder Avenue, he is survived by five sons and four daughters: Ernest, Yorkton, Sask.; Robert, Kamloops, Sask.; William, Winnipeg, and Donald and Hebert, both of Flin Flon, Man.; Mrs. K. Johnson and Mrs. W. Hornsby, both of Winnipeg; Mrs. B. Schneider, Flin Flon, and Mrs. E. Fletcher, also of Flin Flon. Eleven grandchildren also survive.

INVESTIGATE CITY BUILDING

A two-man committee, composed of Aldermen Jack Horn and W. T. L. Roadhouse was appointed by acting-mayor J. J. Ladd Monday night to inspect a building at the rear of Laurie's CAFE.

Fred Gore, building inspector, inspected the structure and suggested a committee be appointed. The aldermen will bring in a report at the next council meeting.

H. A. MACDONALD FUNERAL RITES

Funeral service for Herman Alexander MacDonald, 50, who passed away at his home in Rutland on Saturday, June 11, was conducted by Rev. D. M. Perley, First United Church, on Tuesday, June 14, from the chapel of Day's Funeral Service, with interment following in the Kelowna cemetery.

Resident of the district for the past six years, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald had resided on Coronation Avenue, Kelowna, before taking up residence in Rutland. Born on Cape Breton Island, the World War I veteran leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Anne, in Rutland, two daughters and six sons—Mrs. Audrey Adolph, Vancouver; Mrs. Eleanor Taywood, Vancouver; Ralph, Lake Valley, Sask.; Bill and Douglas, at home; Keith, Victoria; Gerald and Edward, Vancouver. Two grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. G. E. Ireland, Winnipeg, also survive.

Pallbearers were friends of the family: A. Holmwood, W. Davidson, G. Menzies, J. Butt, N. Swerdfeger and W. Taylor.

by usherettes in smartly tailored uniforms when they enter the new Paramount Theatre opening this Thursday.

Realizing the need for carrying out the entire scheme of the digpointments, soft lights, the theatre management has seen to it that those coming in direct contact with the public will present the most modern in efficiency and dress.

Michael Hall will continue to act as assistant manager, while Will Harper will continue to direct the policies and operation of both the new modern Paramount and the old Empress theatres.

All Fruits Throughout Okanagan Sizing Rapidly But Season Still Too Early To Estimate Crop Size

All fruits throughout the Okanagan are sizing rapidly, but it is still too early to estimate crop prospects for the current year, according to the fortnightly horticultural news letter issued this week by the provincial department of agriculture.
Thinning of apricots is completed, and growers are now thinning peaches, pears and apples.

In the Kelowna district, pests and diseases are well under control, the report stated. Sprays are being applied for codling moth, mites, pear psylla and aphids. Due to hot weather at seedling time and onion maggot infestation, the onion crop is spotty in the Kelowna district.

In the Summerland area, cherries have dropped heavily from trees but an average crop is in prospect. The Oliver and Osoyoos district is experiencing an epidemic of fire blight. At the moment, however, it does not look as if there will be the epidemic encountered in 1948 as the blight has not yet moved out of the twigs.

Following is the report by districts:

Salmon Arm, Sorrento and Main Line Points

As reported June 7th: A few cool cloudy days with some rain have been experienced during the past two weeks. The last four to five days, however, have been increasingly warm weather.

Tree fruit growing conditions continue to be favorable at all points. All trees are sizing well.
With the exception of Coryneum blight on apricots and leaf curl on peaches at Salmon Arm relatively little disease is evident. In small fruits more rain would be welcome. There is an exceptionally heavy set of strawberries but they are slow in sizing. First shipments of strawberries from Salmon Arm are expected to start towards the end of next week.

The vegetable picture is improving with the warmer weather.
Growth of tomato plants has been slow and shipments of asparagus from Kamloops have been apertoff. Poor germination and maggot damage are expected to cause a reduction in onion acreage.

Armstrong, Vernon, Osoyoos Winfield and Okanagan Centre

Since our last report weather conditions have again been variable with considerable cloudy weather and the occasional shower. The period of June 4th to the 7th was quite hot with temperatures running from the eighties to the nineties. Soil moisture conditions up to the present have been quite good, but drying out is now rapid. Irrigation is, however, general throughout the district.

In the tree fruits, the drop of apples is not yet completed, and all fruits are sizing rapidly. It is still a little early to estimate the crop prospects. Thinning of apricots is completed and growers are now thinning peaches. Thinning of early varieties of apples is now going on and McIntosh thinning will commence this next week. In small fruits, the strawberry plantations are looking quite good, and early strawberries of excellent quality are now coming freely into the local stores, and will be general by the end of the week. Spittle bugs are causing concern to some strawberry growers.

In vegetable crops, growth is excellent at this time. Early cabbage will be moving within the next week or ten days. Car lot shipments of Armstrong lettuce is now moving freely.

Cutting of the first crop of alfalfa has now commenced and will be general in the next few days.
Grain fields are showing rapid growth.

With the exception of some of the tree fruit diseases the general pest situation at the present is not serious, although pear psylla and European red mite are showing up in some orchards. Onion maggot and wireworm are still continuing to cause serious damage to some vegetable plots. Second cover spray for codling moth is about completed.

Kelowna

As reported June 8th: The weather up to the last week-end has continued cool with a few light showers. High temperatures have been experienced during the last few days.

The tree fruit crop is progressing favorably. Pests and diseases are well under control at the moment. Sprays are being applied for codling moth, mites, pear psylla and aphids. Growers are engaged in fruit thinning.

Because of hot weather at seeding time and onion maggot infestation, the onion crop is spotty. Conditions have been very favorable for the growth of all other vegetable crops.

Summerland, Westbank and Peachland

As reported June 8th: A little rain fell during the early part of this period but hot weather followed and has prevailed up to this time.

Fruit trees throughout the district continue to put out remarkably strong growth and the fruit itself is sizing rapidly. Cherries have dropped heavily but still carry an average crop. Pears are patchy. Bartlett and Flemish should reach an average crop. D'Anjou are light. Thinning of apricots is completed. Peach and pear thinning is under way. Some growers have finished the second cover spray, others waiting another week or two with the idea of obtaining one more codling moth spray. In some areas the timing of cover sprays is becoming quite easygoing, sometimes due to a shortage of spray equipment, but more often due to the increased confidence in the effectiveness of DDT against the Moth.

Aphis of all kinds are numerous in stone fruits this season. European red mite is with us but has not yet become troublesome. Pear psylla was observed as early as the pre-pink stage on pears but is not as yet causing concern. Caterpillars of various kinds have been more numerous than usual particularly in apples and pears where they feed on the young developing fruit.

MANY PEOPLE VISIT WILSON'S LANDING RESORT

WILSON'S LANDING — Many Kelowna and district people have been taking advantage of this popular holiday spot to spend the warm days on the beaches. Recently a party of twenty-five made the trip in the Kelowna sawmill tug.
Included among these were Mr. and Mrs. K. Pilkington, Mrs. H. Sankey,
Mrs. B. Suble and D. E. Jensen.

Journeying from Kelowna to spend a holiday by the lake, Miss Joyce Austin of Kelowna, brought with her a party including Mrs. C.
M. Austin, Mrs. M. Lewers, Miss
Betty Lewers, Miss M. Blake, later joined by Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes and Bobbie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Clark and their children, took advantage of the holiday to hold a picnic.

Travelling by lake in Mr. Archie Sawyer's cabin cruiser, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fairburn had daughter,
Joyce, of Kelowna, and Miss S.
Jones spent the week-end here.

Mr. John Porter also brought his party up for the first time this season. They included Gerry and Gordon McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Avender with Judy and Ginnie, and Miss Goldie Levy.

Staying at his Bear Creek ranch,
the Rev. F. A. Carlyle, of Vancouver, recently holidayed in this district.

Captain W. H. Agar, of Victoria, was a recent visitor at Cowale,
where he met several old friends.
He was met by his son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Agar, of Penticton, with whom he spent the short holiday.

Faith will not die as long as seed catalogues are printed.

not yet moved out of the twigs.
Most of the infection up to now has entered through the secondary blossom. Thinning operation are now in progress on all fruits. The size is very good for the time of the year and it is hoped that it will continue through to harvest. Many of the peach trees which dropped their leaves in May are putting out new buds and show signs of recovery. Early varieties of cherries are expected to be ripe next week with bings commencing toward the end of the following week.

Picking of cucumbers will begin around the tenth of this month with apparently better quality than was obtained in 1948. Tomatoes are blooming with fair sized fruit on the vines in the earliest lots.
Wireworms and cutworms are more serious this year than last and the Colorado potato beetle gives every evidence of becoming more serious than it was last year.

SOUTH KELOWNA P.T.A. PLANS PICNIC JULY 3

SOUTH KELOWNA—The regular meeting of the South Kelowna Parent-Teachers' Association was held at the school last Monday with eleven of the nineteen members present.

A community picnic is scheduled to take place at the Gyro Park on July 3. The secretary reported the sum of $11.60 was realized from the sale of refreshments at the rural track meet. The South Kelowna
P.T.A. has purchased a life membership in the student assistance association.

Concluding the meeting, officers for the coming year were elected:
F. Winton, president; A. Lube, vice-

PREPAREDNESS—

the watchword for to-day

In this uneasy world, planning to meet eventualities is a precaution worth taking, if not for yourself, for those who depend on you.

Pause a moment—it may be later than you think. There is no time like the present to get things done.

The preparations which you make now for your own future and that of your family will afford added security in years to come, and give you satisfaction and peace of mind to-day.

Your investments, your property, your will—are they arranged to best advantage? We can be of assistance to you in considering these matters, at little or no expense.

Let us analyze your Estate, review your investments and help you plan your Will.

Sox Cash In on Wildness To Defeat Brewster 6-3

CAPITALIZING on the wildness of Brewster's starting pitcher, Kelowna Red Sox grabbed a 6-0 lead Sunday and held on stubbornly behind the effective hurling of "I. I. I." Mike Bakoway to register a 6-3 victory—their third win in seven starts for an average of .429. The Okanagan Valley (international) Baseball League fixture was played at Brewster, Wash.

During the one inning Taber toiled on the mound, he committed four errors, gave up two hits, walked two and hit the opposing pitcher, Bakoway, when he (Bakoway) stepped up to the plate in the top half of the second inning. Taber was charged with four runs and the loss before he was relieved by Whitinger with nobody out in the second inning.

Bakoway, in marking up his first league victory as against no losses, held the homeowners scoreless until the seventh when Holt reached first on a fielder's choice and scored home on Whitinger's triple, the only three-bagger and longest hit of the game.

Whitinger shortly afterwards stole home for run number two. Holt scored Brewster's final run in the bottom of the ninth, singling then advancing to second on a wild pitch and coming in on first baseman Williams' one-base smash.

George Garrow and Bakoway, numbers eight and nine in the batting order, accounted for four of Kelowna's runs, with two pieces. Garrow, moved down from lead-off, led a charmed life at the plate, working Taber for one walk and Whitinger for two. In his only official appearance at the plate he got on on a fielder's choice to camp on first base every time.

Bridgeport Here Sunday
This coming Sunday, Bridgeport will make its only appearance here against the Elks-sponsored Sox in Elks Stadium at 2:30 p.m. The Bridgeporters have knocked off some of the biggest so far this year and on other occasions have fared rather badly.

Bridgeport defeated Red Sox 9-3 in the opening game of the season at Bridgeport, and the Washingtonians have victories over Penticton, Omak and Oliver. The Amerks have dropped close decisions to Kamloops, Grand Coulee and Penticton and were on the short end when Oliver's Harold Cousins hurled his no-hitter at Oliver on May 29.

Other games this coming Sunday are Kelowna at Oliver; Brewster at Tonasket; Grand Coulee at Oroville; Penticton at Omak. Majority of clubs will have played nine games in the 18-game schedule by the time Sunday's games are over.

ATHLETICS DROP EXHIBITION TILT 8-2 TO RUTLAND

After six innings of tight, hustling ball, Kelowna's junior Athletics blew up before a smallish crowd in Elks Stadium Sunday afternoon and went down to the Rutland Junior Cougars 8-2.

Jimmy Cousins hurled a nice six innings in holding the Cubs to a 2-2 tie by the end of the sixth. But from then on the Rutlanders found the going easier as they pushed across six runs in their exhibition tilt with the high school team coached jointly by Herb Sullivan and Floyd Jessop.

Cubs' pitcher, Stewart, gave up only five hits.

SEASON'S SECOND PERFECT SCORE

Second perfect to be made this season was registered by Game Warden W. R. Maxson Wednesday of last week at the weekly Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club trap shoots on the K.L.O. range.

A prize donated by J. Angers went to Jim Treadgold in a miss-and-out shoot. Next shoot comes off Wednesday at 6 p.m. Last Wednesday's scores were: Maxson 23; Smith 23; Campbell 23; Crispin 23; Weaver 21; Angers 20; Bennett 23; Kennedy 20; Williamson 20; Hill 17; Sellick 15; Porter 12; McCall 11.

KELOWNA TENNIS TEAMS DIVIDE LEAGUE OPENERS

Six teams saw action in three different cities Sunday in the biggest single day so far in the newly-formed Okanagan Tennis League.

H. Earle, Kelowna, league secretary, reported inter-club matches are scheduled for every other Sunday.

At Summerland, last Sunday, Kelowna's "A" team defeated Summerland, ending the matches one set up.

Kelowna's "B" team was downed by Oliver decisively in a set-to in the southern city, while at Vernon, Okanagan Centre's crew held the Vernon "A" team to a draw.

In the first league games run off two Sundays before, Oliver came out on top with the Summerland of light is that given off by the fire. One of the coolest known forms of "B" team while Vernon's "B" squad fly.

UP-TO-DATE CONFECTIONERY BAR INSTALLED

One of the most attractive features offered patrons at Kelowna's new Paramount Theatre is the completely up-to-date confectionery bar.

Carrying a complete line of candy bars and two of the more popular brands of ice cold soft drinks, this added feature should prove especially popular with the younger set.

The bar constitutes one of the countless deluxe services offered by Famous Players Canadian Corporation in their many theatres across Canada.

However, complying with previous policy the bar will not carry bubble gum!

MANY PEOPLE ATTEND BAZAAR AT OK. CENTRE

OKANAGAN CENTRE—The bazaar with an air of entertainment which was held at the Okanagan Centre Community Hall by the Women's Institute, was successful.

Mrs. H. Gleed, president of the Institute, acted as chairman. After the singing of "O Canada", Mr. Baker opened the program with several familiar piano numbers followed by a three-part song by the Institute chorus, "Roll on River", with an encore, "The Cape Cod Chantey". Singing later on in the program, the ladies gave "I the Bess a Humming" followed by "Away for Rio".

Mrs. E. Warner accompanied on the guitar two pleasing hill-billy songs by herself and sister, Miss MacDonald.

Mr. Baker rendered "Glorious Devon" and in response to a rousing encore sang "A Bachelor's Song". Mr. B. Ramsay, in his usual delightful manner singing to his guitar, "Anne Bolayn" (with 'er' and tucked underneath 'er arm) and "Utah Trail".

The second half of the program was a "The Institute Bazaar" which kept the audience laughing for a half hour.

Mrs. Venables took the leading part as "Mrs. Gamman" convoyer of the white elephant stall, which, as she complained, was "tucked away in a corner". Her assistant, as "Miss Dearborn" was Mrs. Crandlemire, the two being interrupted in their caustic comments on the contents of the stall and their donors by Mrs. Hunter as "Viola", a young bride who has brought as her contribution an enormous ugly vase, a wedding present from "Lady Pandebury" (Mrs. Bernal), who is to open the bazaar. The story hinges on the disposal of this vase.

Supporting actors were Mrs. Reeve, as Lady Ming, organizer of the show and very high-hat; Mrs. Macfarlane and Mrs. Parker, as helpers; Mrs. Evey as the irate mother of the small girl who has presented (off stage) a bouquet to "Lady Pandebury", the small girl being Denise Crandlemire.

All the parts were very well taken showing much imagination in the interpretation. A pleasing ceremony before the opening of the bazaar was the presentation by Mrs. Gleed, on behalf of the Okanagan Centre Women's Institute to Mrs. H. Macfarlane and Mrs. P. W. Picketon, life membership pins for long and outstanding service as members of the Institute.

A large variety of articles were offered for sale on various stalls and all were sold out in a short time, a social hour following when refreshments, organized by Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Fowell, were served.

Mrs. Macfarlane and Mrs. Johnson sold a large variety of flower and vegetable plants; Mrs. Van Ackeren and Mrs. Gabel catered to the children with a "blind man's buff", while nearby Mrs. H. Kobayashi sold candy. Mrs. S. Goffie, Mrs. Reeve and Mrs. Evey were busy disposing of a large stock of home cooking and baking and the sewing stall adjoining was convened by Mrs. H. Bond assisted by

Flower Bordered Path is Inviting Entrance to Home

A frequent planting problem with new homes is provided by a side-wise approach to the front door, as shown in the illustration. Between the walk and the house is a narrow space where it would be difficult to mow lawn grass; and with low modern houses, shrubs and tall evergreens should not be planted there.

Such an area is ideal, however, for a planting of dwarf growing annual flowers which will give a gay welcome to visitors, and also provide many a floral decoration for the living room, or the dinner table.

If this bed is balanced with a border of flowers on the opposite side of the walk, a dooryard garden will result, which will be a constant joy all summer.

Annual flowers which bloom all summer are numerous, and two of the most reliable are marigolds, and portulaca. Both revel in sun, and like hot weather. Dwarf marigolds come in many varieties, with either single or double flowers. In color they range from primrose yellow to deep maroon. Flowers of the Harmony type have yellow centers, surrounded by maroon petals, giving a striking two-tone effect. The single-flowered variety Red Head is the nearest approach to bright red which has been achieved in a marigold. All are easy to grow from seed, and may be transplanted easily. They bloom until the plants are killed by freezing.

Portulaca is one of the most popular flowers in this country. It belongs to the same family as the No. 1 weed, pursley; and once it gets started is almost as difficult to kill. But no one wants to kill the beautiful portulaca, whose bright red, orange and lavender flowers, both single and double, are ideal for a border in the full sun. All the varieties grow from seed, germinating quickly in warm weather. They stand dry weather remarkably and like a sandy soil. They will spread over the ground and cover it with a colorful blanket, bearing flowers freely until winter. It is not good for cut flowers, as they usually close up when cut.

CALVERT 1622 Famous Families OGDEN 1783

Isaac Ogden, New England-born Empire Loyalist, came to Montreal in 1783. He was appointed Judge of the Admiralty Court and later Judge of the Superior Court. His son, Charles Richard, a lawyer, was Attorney-General for Lower Canada from 1833 to 1842. Another son, Peter Skene, associate of fur trader John Jacob Astor, was a partner in the North West Company and, on its amalgamation with the Hudson's Bay Company, became Chief Factor at Fort St. James. Truly a distinguished Canadian family.

Great Families Create Great Nations

CALVERT, head of the famous Calvert family, distinguished English statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, founded pioneer colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland early in the 17th Century.

In the New World, Calvert's descendants advocated friendly trade relations with the Indians. They also fostered principles of democratic freedom and religious tolerance among their settlers. These Calvert ideals were perpetuated down through the succeeding generations of the Calvert family.

The family is the corner-stone upon which great nations are built. Let each of us strive to promote within the great Canadian family the same concepts of freedom and tolerance pioneered by the Calvert family over three hundred years ago.

INSTRUCTORS ATTEND LOCAL SWIM CLASSES

Sixteen candidates from the Okanagan Valley, nine from Kelowna and district, will attend the annual Red Cross Swimming Instructors' School commencing on Monday, June 27 and continuing until Friday, July 1, at the Kelowna Aquatic Club.

The candidates will represent towns from Osoyoos to Princeton and will spend the five days studying all phases of swimming instruction and water safety, including life-saving. Upon completion of the course, the delegates will return to teach Red Cross swimming throughout the Okanagan Valley.

Sponsored by the Canadian Red Cross, the school has been in operation for four years. Methods used by Canada and the United States are being adopted throughout the world by the rapidly expanding Red Cross swimming and water safety departments.

The Eldorado Arms

The Canadian Fisher, sometimes called the Pennant or the Black Cat, is a fur-bearing member of the weasel family, and is the largest of the North American Mar-

ten. For its size, it is the swiftest and most deadly of our fur-bearers.

Popular Summer Resort Overlooking Picturesque Okanagan Has Completed Changes in Time For Tourist Season

ELDORADO ARMS HOTEL, overlooking beautiful Okanagan Lake, has recently added a three room cottage to accommodate the influx of guests expected this summer.

Cedar siding on the exterior of the cottage blends in harmoniously with the stuccoed and raftered exteriors of the other three cabins and the main lodge itself. Inside, however, the cottage is exquisitely modern and comfortable. Walls and floors are of knotty pine throughout, with the exception of the two bathrooms which are tiled. Two dutch entrance doors featuring heavy wrought iron hinges, make it possible to convert the cottage from one three-room unit to two separate cabins, with one room and bath, and two rooms with shower.

Entering the cottage from the lake side, a bright sunny room, decorated in lime green and tomato red, leads directly off a small verandah furnished with deck chairs. Twin beds, covered in lime green and matching combination vanity-writing desk, form the bulk of the furniture, supplemented by two hostess chairs. Crisp chintz drapes in tomato red, henna and lime on a white background, frame the large windows. A bathroom complete with bath and shower adjoins.

Leading through an adjoining door, which can be shut off to convert the cottage into a two and one bedroom unit, one enters another double bedroom in which blue is the dominant shade complemented by different tones of brown. Nigger brown leaves and blue flowers, pattern the crisp white chintz at the window, while beige and white striped spreads cover the twin beds. Relaxing hostess chairs and coffee table, and furniture styled the same as that in the first room, complete the furnishings.

A bathroom with shower adjoins, and double dutch doors lead out of doors. Directly off this second bedroom is another, slightly smaller, but also furnished with twin beds and the combination vanity-writing desk unit. Grey aeroplane cloth piped in blue covers the beds while the curtains are of bright chintz.

Four Cottages

Braided rag rugs cover the knotty pine floors throughout the cabin. Hugh Barrett, wife of the present owner-manager of the Eldorado Arms, designed the furnishings and handled the interior decorating of the cottage. C. Barlee and Sons constructed the building.

With the addition of this new building, there are now four cottages. In the lodge itself, there are 26 rooms while the annex has 12. The attractive dining room with its dark-beamed ceiling and brightly curtained windows can seat approximately sixty guests.

The Eldorado Arms has a historical beginning. Countess I. M. Bubna, on a visit to Kelowna, purchased part of the well-known Posthill Ranch and carried out many improvements, renaming the property at Ellison Eldorado Ranch.

Later she built the Eldorado Arms Hotel, one of the finest hostels in British Columbia, and sojourned in the Okanagan with her two daughters, Countess Olga and Countess Ina, making frequent visits to Europe.

Finally, however, the Countess Bubna left Kelowna to reside in Europe. She died at Montreux, Switzerland. Before she left, the Countess disposed of the property to W. McNair, of Kamloops, who sold out that same year to J. Ferguson, formerly of Craig Lodge, Lillooet.

Beautiful Lawns

Originally of English parentage, Countess Bubna was formerly a patterned after an old English country inn, both in design and hospitality. meals and rooms are provided on the American plan, making it more convenient to guests.

The first commercial telegraph line in Canada was set up in 1847, linking Toronto, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, and Buffalo.

Members of the younger set took over the Aquatic Club at the weekly dance held there last Saturday evening, with a young married couple, college students, recent high school graduates and many of the young men and women around town, gaily dancing to the music of Carl Dunaway's popular orchestra.

First arrivals at the gala Saturday night affair were Joyce Reinbold and her escort John Kitson, a life-guard at the Aquatic Club. Those two started an influx of people into the brightly lit club. Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Weyenberg were early arrivals, followed by Marie Walrod whose husband "Tiny" is at present in New York on a business trip. Mrs. Walrod was at the dance in the official capacity of selling Aquatic membership tickets.

Moirva Paige escorted by Chris McCormick, Betty Ball and Gib Wade, Jeannette O'Brien and Bob Lemmie, Helen Murdoch and Bob Wyman, Vivian Faulkner and Murray Hay were also among the earlier arrivals.

Although a bitterly cold northerly wind blew through the Aquatic Club, gay sun dresses with matching flyaway jackets, in shantung, printed cottons, and crisp linens, were a popular choice among the women.

Among those choosing this attire for the evening dance were Mrs. Eric Winter, accompanied by her husband, and Doreen Wakely escorted by Alan Marshall.

A party of eight arrived at the club were Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. O. Watson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Cocking. Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLennan, the latter president of the Women's Association to the Aquatic Club, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Griffiths, and Mrs. Roy Greening were noticed in Mrs. Beebe's popular coffee shop.

As always, parties drifted into the dance in crowds of two and three couples. Noted among these was that of Dick Stewart and his date, Maurie Paterson-Caw, who were accompanied by Dudley McGeer and Jackie Buss, Erwin Schellburg and Alice Boss, Tom Lans-

Disappointments and failures can and do multiply fast when eyesight is neglected, abused, allowed to "run down."

Earning and learning power are at stake. Eyes that do not see easily, clearly, surely, cannot keep pace with mind and hand in office and shop. And in school.

At every turn, impaired vision narrows the gateway to opportunity and success.

It pays to know, not "guess," about your eyes.

Make Strawberry Jam this Quick, Easy, Sure Way with CERTO

1 So Quick — So Easy. It takes no more time than to make a simple dessert. First, crush thoroughly 2 quarts fully ripe berries. (Use ripe fruit, not the under-ripe fruit called for in old-fashioned recipes.) Measure 4 cups crushed fruit and 7 cups sugar into large saucepan or kettle, mix well, bring to full, rolling boil over high heat.

2 Short Boil Keeps Fresh-Fruit Flavor, Color. Stir constantly before and while boiling. BOIL HARD ONE MINUTE ONLY (No long boiling to dull the natural color or spoil the luscious fresh-fruit taste.) Remove from heat, stir in half-bottle of Certo Fruit Pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit.

3 50% More Jam! Because you don't have to "boil down" your juice to make it set, you'll have about 10 glasses to ladle and paraffin instead of the 6 to be expected from "long-boil" recipes. Certo helps all fruits to jelly without tedious long boiling... averages 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit.

4 No Guesswork. As each fruit comes in season, use Certo to stock your cupboard with a variety of delicious jams and jellies. With each bottle of Certo you get a booklet of 78 Kitchen-Tested recipes... a different one for each fruit since different fruits need different handling. For sure results follow these recipes exactly.

A pound of jam or jelly made with Certo contains no more sugar than a pound made the old, long-boil way.

Certo is nothing but fruit pectin—the natural substance in fruit which makes jams "jam" and jellies "jell"—extracted and concentrated for easier, quicker, better jam and jelly making. The name "Certo" is a trade-mark.

Tribute Paid Women's Institute of Westbank For Blood Donor Help

MRS. W. H. H. MOFFAT, local chairman of the Red Cross Blood donor committee, presented a splendid report of the part taken by Westbank in this worthy cause, at a recent meeting of Westbank Women's Institute. Out of 115 cards signed by donors, 100 attended the clinic held in Kelowna May 17 and 18. Appreciation for the voluntary effort of Westbank Trade Board in providing transportation to and from the clinic was expressed. Grateful thanks to canvassers and to all others who helped to make the local blood donor panel such a success was also expressed in the report. It is hoped that Westbank may be able to have their own clinic.

Regarding the planned trip for high school pupils to Falkland, it was regretted that this must be cancelled this year owing to unforeseen circumstances. The Institute decided instead, to donate the sum of $25 toward the cost of a new projector for the school.

Mrs. A. Fearnley, W.I. secretary, reported attending the annual meeting of the Westbank Memorial Centre, at which time plans were made for making a small playground on the lot adjoining the hall. Improvements to the grounds in front of the cenotaph are also planned. Other improvements include facing of the Memorial Hall property.

Mrs. J. H. Blackie reported on the one-day conference of South Okanagan Women's Institutes held recently at Osoyoos. Mrs. Blackie and Mrs. McLaughlin attended as delegates from Westbank.

Westbank's Fall Fair was set by the meeting for September 1, and it was decided to omit the display of school work at that time. Early September is an inconvenient time of the year for teachers and pupils alike to arrange for such displays. Instead the Institute will sponsor a showing of their annual Valentine tea, when prizes will be offered for the various classes. This was done last February and proved to be an interesting event.

Mrs. B. Woodsworth's resignation as treasurer was received with reluctance by the Institute, and Mrs. MacLaughlin was appointed as financial secretary in her place.

The shipment of wool blankets recently received by the Institute was discussed at some length, and owing to the fact that charges have increased considerably, the meeting decided to discontinue this effort. The blankets are made from old wool gathered by those in the district and the Institute has taken charge of the 100-pound shipments for some years now.

A letter from W. A. Hoson, campaign manager of the Conquer Cancer Campaign, thanking Westbank for the help in this work, was read. On this connection it is worthy of note that Westbank's quota of $100 was so far exceeded that final returns showed local collections to the amount of $202.15.

Held at the lakeshore home of Mrs. J. H. Blackie, the meeting was attended by thirteen members. Mrs. Reece, president, was in the chair.

CENTRE HOLDS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

OKANAGAN CENTRE—A party from Summerland journeyed to the Centre recently for a tennis match with the local club. The party included Mr. and Mrs. R. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Wright, Mrs. Beech, Mrs. Cuthbert, George Fudge and Nick Solly.

Opposing them were Mr. and Mrs. C. Fallow, Mr. and Mrs. Van Ackeren, Mrs. Baker, Miss Hare, T. Collinson and V. Slater.

Some very close and hard fought sets ended in a draw for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Faircloth and small daughter, of Fernie, made a ten-day visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Macfarlane.

USE FERTILIZER WITH TOMATOES

Every grower wants to apply his fertilizer in such a way that it will be used to the greatest efficiency. It should be applied so that the plant roots can readily reach it and so that it is in contact with moist soil. The problem of making recommendations for fertilizer placement is not simple since the character of the soil influences the choice of methods. On heavier soil types, concentrated application such as band placement may be particularly effective but on lighter sandy soils nutrient uptake may be limited by inavailability during dry weather.

The National Joint Committee on Fertilizer Application in the United States have recognized this factor and have recommended band placement for tomatoes on heavy soils, but on light sandy soils have recommended that the fertilizer should be applied broadcast and ploughed under, followed by two or more side dressings. During the last three years studies of fertilizer placement with tomatoes have been conducted on a light sandy soil at the Smithfield Substation, Northumberland County, Ont., says Dr. H. Hill, Division of Horticulture, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. Five different basic methods of fertilizer application were employed, with and without starter solution as well as combinations of such methods:

1. Fertilizer placed in the bottom of the row furrows and covered lightly with soil.
2. Fertilizer applied with a fertilizer-grain drill.
3. Fertilizer broadcast and ploughed under.
4. Fertilizer broadcast followed by disking.
5. Fertilizer applied in bands three to four inches to each side of the row and three to four inches deep.

The highest marketable yield was obtained where one of these basic methods of application before or at planting, was supplemented by a side dressing of 150 pounds muriate of potash, and 200 pounds of ammonium sulphate per acre at the time of the last cultivation. When the supplemental dressing was not applied the highest total and marketable yield was obtained by placing the fertilizer in the furrow, closely followed by application with a grain drill.

Placing superphosphate only in the furrow and side dressing with nitrogen and potash did not give good results. They did not appear to be any advantage from band placement on this light soil since total yields were lower than other basic methods and marketable yields were further reduced. In 1946 when soil moisture was deficient during the growing period, yields were especially reduced by this method of application.

The use of a starter solution increased yields appreciably and has a larger effect in producing early ripe fruit. The occurrence of blossom end rot was increased by the concentrated application of fertilizer such as band placement and in the bottom of the furrow while if the fertilizer was broadcast followed by disking blossom end rot was consistently reduced.

Consistent high yields and a low percentage of blossom end rot were obtained by broadcasting the fertilizer before disking, employing a starter solution, and applying a side dressing of nitrogen and potash at the time of the last cultivation.
